

STUDENT RELEASE OF EDUCATION RECORDS

Student Name (Last, First, M):	ISU ID:	Date of Birth (MM/DD/YY):
--------------------------------	---------	---------------------------

The completion of this release form is only authorization to view the above named student's academic information. This form is not a request for grades or transcripts.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, the Buckley Amendment of 1974 (FERPA), allows students at an institution of higher education to control outside access to their education records, including requests for information from their parents or other family members. Without a student's written consent, Idaho State University may not disclose information from a student's education records to outside third parties except as provided under FERPA. Among other exceptions, the University may disclose (but is not required to disclose) a student's education records to the taxpayer who is entitled to claim, and has claimed, the student as a dependent, as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code. The taxpayer must file a Declaration of Dependence.

A student can also provide a standing release allowing ISU to disclose information to other persons. To do so the following declaration must be completed.

I, the above-named student, hereby declare that Idaho State University may release information to the following person(s).

- Authorized Person's Printed Name: _____ SS#: _____
