Snake River Association for Neuroscience Fall Conference 2007

Thursday 5:00 p.m. October 11th - Saturday, 12:00 noon October 13th

Sun Valley Resort in Sun Valley, ID

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS: Abstract submissions due by September 12th. Check our web site to submit your abstract: <http://www.isu.edu/departments/sran/>. The preliminary program includes an opening plenary talk by Dr. Curt Anderson, Idaho State University, entitled "So, what DO we know about the brain?" The keynote address Friday evening will be presented by Dr. David Linden, John Hopkin's University, "The Accidental Mind."

The 2007 Bioinformatics Workshop will be held, October 12 & 13, 2007.

This year's theme is "Biomedical Bioinformatics" and features training sessions and research talks emphasizing the use of computation approaches for addressing data-intensive biomedical research issues. The keynote speaker is Michael Rosenberg of Arizona State University.

The Workshop will be held in Lava Hot springs at the Aura Soma conference facility. Due to the generosity of our sponsors, the Workshop, receptions and banquet (Riverwalk Thai) are free for registered participants. Space is limited, of course - please contact Workshop organizers Mike Thomas (mthomas@isu.edu) or Heath Ogden (ogdet@isu.edu) to register. Rooms have been reserved at the adjoining motel (Oregon Trail) if you'd like to stay the night ($59).
