

Sarah Connolly, M.A., Clinical Assistant Professor

Education:

M.A. Speech Pathology, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan
B.A. Communication Disorders, Marygrove College, Detroit, Michigan
John Carroll University, University Heights, Ohio

Current Certification:

CCC-SLP
State of Idaho license for Speech-Language Pathology
State Department of Education Pupil Personnel Credential
Compton P-ESL Program
Hanan Program for Parents: It Takes Two to Talk

Clinical Experience:

Prior to clinical teaching at Idaho State University, Sarah has practiced in hospitals, clinics, schools and private practice. She has varied clinical experiences which include hospital outpatient care, neonatal intensive care, pediatric follow-up clinic for neurodevelopmental disorders and cleft palate, school age speech and language, preschool speech and language and accent reduction.

Community Educator:

Presenter: BSU Infant and Toddler Class: Speech and Language Development 0-3 years

Presenter: Four day speech therapy aide workshop for State Department of Education

Presenter: Normal language development—issues for day-care providers, Treasure Valley Association for Education of Young Children

ISHA convention mini-course on improving oral motor skills in developmentally delayed children

Professional Membership

American Speech and Hearing Association
Idaho Speech and Hearing Association