

B.S. DEGREE IN EDUCATIONAL INTERPRETING TREASURE VALLEY AREA

To get a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in Educational Interpreting you need to have your Associate of Science (A.S.) degree in Sign Language Studies first.

- Apply to BSU and take general education courses to be “core certified”, or satisfy Idaho State University General Education requirements.
  - See ISU/BSU course equivalent list
  - Ali Crane is ISU’s Director of Enrollment & Student Services in Boise; 208-373-1706; 12301 W. Explorer Dr. W., Suite 102; 83713. She can help you with the ISU/BSU general education equivalent courses
- Take ASL I-IV: Modern Language & Literatures (MLL) Department from BSU.
  - ASL I and III are offered fall semester and ASL II and IV are offered spring semester
  - <http://modlang.boisestate.edu/index.htm>
  - The MLL Department office is located in the Albertsons Library , L140B 208-426-3956
- Transfer all of these credits to ISU
  - Apply to ISU; declare your major as Sign Language Studies
  - For advising, contact Emily Turner, Director; SLS/Ed Interpreting; 282-5341; turnemil@isu.edu or Linda Humphreys, Assistant Professor, 373-1765; lindahum@isu.edu
  - A total of 64 credits is needed to receive an Associate of Science degree in Sign Language Studies. This degree is a pre-requisite to entering the Educational Interpreting B.S. degree program which is scheduled to begin at the ISU facility in Boise, fall 2009.

From Idaho State University’s Boise Facility:

- Take these Sign Language Studies courses (From ISU-Boise):
  - CSED 126                      Deaf Studies (fall semester)
  - CSED 205                      Intro to Comm. Diff. & Disorders (spring semester)
  - CSED 250/250 L              Signing Seminar and Lab (fall semester)
  - CSED 256                      Deaf Culture (spring semester)
  - CSED 355                      Creative Sign (spring semester)
- Apply for your A.S. degree in Sign Language Studies from ISU
- Apply for the Educational Interpreting program spring semester by April 1st.
  - http://www.isu.edu/departments/csed/prog\_ei/edinterp\_app\_form.pdf
  - This is when your major will change from Sign Language Studies to Educational Interpreting
  - Enroll in appropriate courses for Educational Interpreting
    - See ISU/BSU course equivalent list
    - For advising, contact Linda Humphreys, Assistant Professor, 373-1765; lindahum@isu.edu