

Fees for Online Preprofessional Program
Revised 3-27-07

The Online Preprofessional Program is designed to allow an individual to take the preprofessional (leveling) coursework from a site distant from Pocatello or Boise, Idaho. The courses are independent of the regular course offerings, but are offered in the same semester as those offerings.

Fees for the coursework parallel those of the regular curriculum, with the addition of $175 per credit hour taken. The following information is provided as an estimate and should be verified through financial services, as fees change without notice.

Current fees for 2006-2007:

- Full time (8 credit hours or more) In-state Undergraduate fees: $2,095 + insurance
- Full time (8 credit hours or more) non-resident Undergraduate fees: $6,230 + insurance
- Part time (1-7 credits) in-state Undergraduate fees: $214.00/credit hour
- Part time (1-7 credits) non-resident Undergraduate fees: $332.00/credit hour

You may elect to pursue your online Preprofessional coursework as either full- or part-time. A full time student could expect to pay the following:
