

Idaho State

UNIVERSITY

Educational Methodologies for Allied Dental Educators (June 1st - July 24, 2009)

This interactive online course is designed to provide educators background in best practices in educational methodologies as they apply to instructional design. Topics covered will include evaluating learning styles and needs along with development of learning objectives, learning strategies, instructional materials, and evaluation tools. Ongoing application of new learning to the participants' work setting is a critical aspect of the course. An optional project will be development or revision a course. Expect to devote about 3 hours per week to readings along with preparation and participation in online discussions. (24 CE credits awarded) dates: June 1, 2009 through July 24, 2009

mode of delivery: Fully online 8 week session

cost: $300

faculty: Chris Giso, MBA and Linda D. Boyd, RDH, RD, EdD

technical requirements: (1) high speed internet connection with access to a computer, (2) ability to transmit Word documents, and (3) ability to read PDF documents.

required Textbook: Dean GJ. Designing Instruction for Adult Learners, 2nd Ed. 2002. Malabar, FL: Kreiger Pub. ISBN: 1-57524-205-2 (can be ordered online from a variety of sources) deadline for registration is May 1st, 2009: For questions about registration contact: Chris Giso at (208) 282-1809 or e-mail gisochri@isu.edu.

Application for registration

Name _____
E-mail address _____ Phone _____
Mailing address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Please mail the application portion of this page and your check, to ISU Department of Dental Hygiene, Division of Graduate Studies, 12301 W. Explorer Drive, Suite 102, Boise, Idaho 83713 by May 1, 2009.

Make check payable to ISU Department of Dental Hygiene. The ISU Department of Dental Hygiene reserves the right to cancel this course if minimum enrollment is not met.