- Waivers are awarded based upon a ranking system using the current NRTW applicants' GRE/MAT/GMAT scores and entry GPA.
- Students must be full time (Classified Admission Status) degree-seeking students in order to be considered for an NRTW.
- There are a very limited number of waivers. Many qualified applicants will not receive a waiver due to the limited number of waivers available.
- Time accrued while receiving a Non-Resident Tuition Waiver WILL NOT contribute toward the length of time required for Idaho Residency status.
- The Art and Pre-Architecture Department no longer requires the GRE for admission. HOWEVER, GRE scores are used to calculate eligibility for NRTW awards. Students who do not provide scores will not be eligible to receive a Non-Resident Tuition Waiver.
- Recipients of NRTWs will be notified as soon as possible following determination of awards.
- An NRTW application is not required for application to Graduate School.
- Currently, the following programs do not qualify for a NRTW: Counseling, CSED, Nursing, Occupational Therapy, Physicians Assistant & Physical Therapy
