

Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation Idaho Chapter

Date: Saturday, October 1, 2011

Time: 1:00 - 4:00 PM

Location: Idaho Museum of Natural History,
Pocatello, Idaho.

Board Meeting will be at 12:00-1:00 p.m. in Museum Classroom 204. Members welcome. Members and visitors will meet after lunch to hear two speakers:

Thomas Jefferson and the West: Disputed Territory
Dr. Ron Hatzenbuehler, ISU History Department

Geology Along the Lewis and Clark Trail: How Geology Influenced the Course of History.
Dr. Paul Link, ISU Department of Geosciences

Bring a sack lunch and come at noon for informal discussions. Program begins at 1:00 PM in Museum Classroom 204.

Be sure to visit the Idaho Museum of Natural History (Museum hours 10:00 - 5:00 PM; Admission Free).

Other area points of interest along the trail:

Bannock County Historical Museum, Pocatello
Bannock Shoshone Tribal Museum, Fort Hall
Fort Hall Replica, Pocatello
Massacre Rocks State Park
Museum of Idaho, Idaho Falls