

THE ART OF GENDER IN EVERYDAY LIFE VII

A Multidisciplinary Conference

February 26, 2010, at Idaho State University

STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

Awards: The Conference Committee will award one prize of $150. Additional Director's Prizes of $25 each may be awarded at the committee's discretion.

Competition guidelines:

- The paper must be presented by the author at the February 2010, Art of Gender in Everyday Life VII conference at Idaho State University in Pocatello, ID.
- The paper may be from any discipline.
- The paper must be given in English.
- Only the version of the paper that is actually read at the conference is eligible. The paper should be approximately 8-12 pages, double-spaced, exclusive of bibliography. The abstract and bibliography should be included with the paper.
- Five hard copies and a CD/disk containing the conference version of the paper must be presented at the registration desk by 9am on Friday, February 26. They should be addressed to: Heidi Harold - Student Paper Competition. NO LATE SUBMISSIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.
- A cover page must be attached with the following information: the author's name, institutional affiliation (including department), divisional status (graduate or undergraduate) and email address; the name, address, and telephone number of the student's advisor; and the name of the session where the paper was or is to be presented.
- Shared authorship papers are eligible provided that the category in which they are entered (i.e. undergraduate or graduate) is that appropriate for the most senior author. Papers co-authored with professionals are not eligible for the student paper competition.
- All papers submitted by undergraduates must be accompanied by a note from the student's advisor indicating that the work is original and that the professor believes it to be appropriate for presentation at the conference.

Judging: A panel of judges from a variety of disciplines will blind review submissions. The panel will employ standard scholarly criteria in making its awards.

For information about the conference, give us a call, (208)282-2808, or consult our website, www.isu.edu/andersoncenter.

Questions about the competition or the conference can be directed to gndrctr@isu.edu.