1. Because you were denied in the initial review process or this is your fourth or greater appeal, you are required to meet with the Financial Aid Appeal Committee for a decision on your appeal.
2. The committee meets on a regular basis in the Office of Financial Aid on the Pocatello campus and on the Idaho Falls Campus. It is composed of 3-5 faculty and staff members. To schedule an appointment in Pocatello, contact the Office of Financial Aid at (208)282-2756. In Idaho Falls, contact the Student Services Office at (208)282-7800 or the Office of Financial Aid at (208)282-7704.
3. You should attend the meeting prepared to discuss the problems that prohibited you from meeting the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements. If you have additional documentation to support your case, take copies to your appeal meeting.
4. The Appeal Committee decision is final. If you are denied, they will inform you of steps you can take to have your aid reinstated in future semesters. If you are approved, you will be eligible to receive financial aid under the terms of a financial aid contract.
5. If you choose not to schedule an appointment with the appeal committee, you may be able to regain your eligibility by attending Idaho State University without financial assistance and making up your deficiency in credit hours completed and/or required grade point average. Contact the Office of Financial Aid to confirm your individual requirements for reinstatement.
