Faculty Constitution
Draft version 0.6

Preamble, Articles I, II, III, IV and V.I.a.(1),(b) as approved so far by Provisional Faculty Senate 10/10/2011

Preamble

To facilitate communication, understanding, and cooperation among the officers of Idaho State University, and to ensure the orderly development of educational programs and policies committed to our trust, we, the president and faculty of Idaho State University, do hereby subscribe to this constitution establishing principles of organization, authority, and responsibility of the Idaho State University faculty. In adopting this constitution the president and faculty of Idaho State University affirm our belief in academic freedom and responsibility as specified in the Idaho State Board of Education policy (Section III.B, April 2002) and the American Association of University Professors 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure.

Institutions of higher education are established for the common good and not to further the interest of either the individual faculty member or the institution as a whole, and the common good depends upon the free search for truth and its free exposition through scholarship.

Academic freedom is essential to these purposes and applies to teaching, research (including scholarly and creative activities), and service. Academic freedom in teaching is fundamental for the protection of the rights of the teacher in teaching and of the student to freedom in learning. Academic freedom in research is fundamental to the advancement of truth. Academic freedom in service is fundamental to the advancement of the common good and the development of educational programs and policies. Academic freedom should not be abridged or abused. Academic freedom carries with it duties correlative with rights.

Faculty are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing their subject, but they should be careful not to introduce into their teaching controversial matter which has no relation to their subject.

Faculty are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results, subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties; but research for pecuniary return should be based upon an understanding with the authorities of the institution.

Faculty are entitled to speak or write freely without institutional discipline or restraint on matters pertaining to faculty governance and development of educational programs and policies.

College and university faculty members are citizens, members of a learned profession, and officers of the educational institution. When they speak or write as citizens, they should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special obligations. As scholars and educational officers, they should remember that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their utterances. Hence they should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others, and should make every effort to indicate that they are not speaking for the institution.

Article III: Powers and Authority

Section 1: General

Recommendations are made to the president and the provost and vice president of academic affairs of the University.

- a. THE FACULTY has primary responsibility on matters of educational policy within the limits prescribed by federal and state law and the regulations of the Idaho State Board of Education. Educational policy pertains to such matters as curricula, methods of instruction, facilities and materials for instruction, standards for admission and retention of students, and criteria for the granting of degrees. It also includes those aspects of student life that relate directly to the educational process including the establishment of regulations concerning financial aid, academic performance, extracurricular activities, and freedom of action and expression.

On these matters the power of review or final decision lodged in the governing board or delegated by it to the president should be exercised adversely only in exceptional circumstances, and for reasons communicated to the faculty. It is desirable that the faculty should, following such communication, have opportunity for further consideration and further transmittal of its views to the president or board. Budgets, personnel limitations, the time element, and the policies of other groups, bodies, and agencies having jurisdiction over the institution may set justifiable limits to realization of faculty advice.

- b. THE FACULTY has primary responsibility for policies and procedures governing the performance of research, scholarship and creative activities.
- c. THE FACULTY has primary responsibility for policies and procedures governing faculty appointment, tenure, and promotion.
- d. THE FACULTY has primary responsibility for policies and procedures governing the performance of faculty service.
- e. THE FACULTY will normally function through its representative body, the Faculty Senate (see Article V). However THE FACULTY will also have the rights of initiative and referendum, as specified in Article IV: Section 2e, Article V: Section 3d, and in Article VI: Section 1.

Section 2: College, School, Division, Department, and the Library

Within the limits of policies approved by the Idaho State Board of Education, the policies and practices within the particular college, school, division, department, or the library will be determined by the members of THE FACULTY of the specific college, school, division, department, or the library and will normally be implemented by the interested dean or chairperson.

e. Faculty Review of Senate or Presidential Action

- (1) THE FACULTY may contest an action taken by the Faculty Senate or a failure to act on an initiative petition. To override a specific action of the Faculty Senate, THE FACULTY may conduct a vote. A majority of those present and voting at a meeting of THE FACULTY may call for a vote of THE FACULTY. According to the provisions of Article V, Section 3d, such ballot will be accompanied by the minutes of the meeting sent to each member of THE FACULTY. The Chair of the Faculty Senate will administer, record and report the vote within the period of time specified in the Faculty Senate bylaws for faculty-wide referendums. A vote of THE FACULTY requires a two-thirds majority of those casting a vote to override a Faculty Senate action.

- (2) THE FACULTY may contest a University Presidential action following the procedure specified in Article IV, Section 2e(1). A vote of the faculty requires a two-thirds majority of those casting votes to contest an action of the University President. The Chair of the Faculty Senate will communicate the results of a contested action to all faculty and to the Idaho State Board of Education if a two-thirds margin is achieved.
