THANK YOU!

Special thanks to Dr. Maureen Brandon, ISU's 2003 Distinguished Teacher, for sharing insights on teaching excellence. Maureen – it was GREAT to host you during our January meeting!

Thank you to Rebecca Morrow and the Anderson Center Library for volunteering to “host” ISUPW's file cabinet and records. Information will be transferred soon. We appreciate the opportunity to have a more centralized “home” for ISUPW's history and records.

A HELLO FROM OUR PAST: Long time ISUPW member, Diane Jenkins wants folks to know: “Please tell everyone that I do miss my time with them at the ISUPW meetings. Thank them for continuing to exist; I learned and benefited so much from ISUPW. I grew professionally and personally, as a woman, because of ISUPW. I have a nice big house with a guest room and anyone is welcome to stop by Durango and stay with me and visit the beautiful Southwest!” Diane can be reached at: JENKINS_D@fortlewis.edu

ANNOUNCING: Melissa Borders Stevenson, California actress, will portray eight historical women: Frida Kaholo, Sarah Bernhardt, Nellie Bly, Charlie Pankhurst, Lola Montez, Belle Starr, Isadora Duncan and Clara Barton on February 24th at 7:00 pm, in the College of Education Auditorium. Cost is $2.00/person. Tickets can be purchased at the door. Proceeds go to the ISU Women's Studies scholarship fund. For more information contact Susan Green Barger at: 282-5197.

JANUARY 2004 MEETING HIGHLIGHTS/MINUTES: Dr. Maureen Brandon visited with folks sharing insights and strategies to impact teaching effectiveness. Special thanks to Maureen for sharing her time and expertise with ISUPW. After the pot luck and presentation the Board met to discuss business matters. Highlights/Summary as follows:

1. Newsletter information brainstorming – Cynthia will put the newsletter out in early February.
2. Sandra and Jan agreed to chair the Woman of Achievement nomination process. Nominee to be announced through the February newsletter and the February meeting.
3. Board nominations to be solicited through the newsletter as well as member recruitment.
4. February's meeting to be themed: Bring a Friend Night (member roster to be attached to the February newsletter).
5. Pocatello Leadership Network funds (just under 550.00) to be transferred to the ISUPW legal defense fund (Cynthia & Kathleen to coordinate this as well as review various ISUPW accounts and consider possible account consolidations).
6. Rebecca agreed to “house” ISUPW files/records in the Anderson Center library. Cynthia will help coordinate this.

February 2004

7. The board agreed to fund updating the ISUPW web page. Info. to be included on the web page will be the ISUPW by laws, legal defense fund guidelines, etc. Cynthia will coordinate this.
8. Special thanks to Mary, Jan and Kathleen for making meeting location and beverage arrangements, as well as guest presentation arrangements!
