Other October events at ISU

October 5, 2004 at 7 pm in the College of Education Auditorium. Votes For Women! was the battle cry of the 19th century Women's Suffrage Movement. Songs of the Suffragists, performed by Francie Wolff, brings the history of that movement alive through period costumes, songs, and posters. Voter information and registration booths open from 5 pm to 7pm. Refreshments served. Free to the public. Sponsors: ISU Women's Studies Program, JCA Gender

Resource Center, League of Women Voters, ISU College Democrats, ISU College Republicans, Center for New Directions, and ISUPW.

Oct 6 at 7:30 pm in the College of Education Auditorium Iron Jawed Angels (HBO film) will be shown. It is about the final days of the suffrage movement. We will follow with discussion. Voter registration materials will be available. Sponsors: JCA Gender resource Center, ISU Women's Studies Program, and the Idaho Women's Network.

November Meeting- November 19, 2004, Time to be announced, Anderson Center:
 Meet with new faculty/staff who have participated in women's groups at other universities to learn what issues they dealt with and what activities they conducted. If you fit this category, you are invited to come and share your experiences. Bring your lunch!

BRAGS AND ROASTS

Have you or a woman you know at ISU accomplished something, received an award, made a contribution to the ISU community, etc.? If so, send your news to Deb Easterly at eastdebb@isu.edu and it will be included in the newsletter.
