

Research Computing Subcommittee Mission Statement

Approved December 7, 2005 by the Research Computing Subcommittee.

The Research Computing Subcommittee, a formal subcommittee of the IT Governance Structure, serves to give University research computing users a formal means of representation to the University administration. It seeks to encourage and facilitate research focused on the use of computing technology and/or highly reliant on advanced computational methods. It seeks additionally to encourage a culture of collaborative interactions and resource sharing amongst those researchers.