Sample # 2

The State Board of Education requires that students be given the opportunity to evaluate their courses and their instructors. The Theatre and Dance faculty members are not allowed to see the evaluations completed by students. All evaluations are anonymous. A compilation of the responses will be given to the instructor after final grades have been submitted. The evaluations are reviewed by the Chair of the Department and the Dean of Arts and Sciences. They are important documents used to evaluate faculty performance and students are encouraged to make honest comments.
