

Name: AES Engineering Solutions

Amount: $500

Award Period: 2008-2009 Academic Year

Major: Any

Class Level: Any

Enrolled: Full-time (defined as 12 credits for undergraduates, 9 credits for graduate students) at time of award. Students who are taking at least 8 credits but less than 12 due to special circumstances may apply but need to address this issue in their statement.

GPA: Not specified

Financial Need: Need Considered

Citizen Preferences: ID: (No) U.S.:(No)

Transcript: None required

Statement: A 1000 word essay answering one of the two following questions:
1. What do you consider to be the single most important problem that is facing society today? Why?
2. Why are you a good candidate to receive this award?

Letter of Recommendation: N/A

Scholarship Information and Applications available at: <http://www.aesengineers.com/scholarships.htm>

Return: Apply online

Selection Committee: AES Engineering Solutions

Due Date: September 15, 2008