I. Introduction
The Student Conduct Code establishes behavioral standards and responsibilities for Idaho State University (hereinafter as “ISU” or “University”) students and includes the processes and procedural rights for administering conduct proceedings.

II. Policy Statement
The Student Conduct Code articulates behavioral standards and procedural guidelines designed to empower ISU community members to live, work, study, recreate and pursue their goals in a safe, secure and inclusive environment. Adherence to and enforcement of the Code promotes student accountability, community integrity, and mission fidelity.

This Code should be viewed as a general framework to guide student conduct. It cannot possibly cover all complex situations or exceptional circumstances involving policies and procedures. Therefore, the Vice President for Student Affairs, in collaboration with University General Counsel, shall decide what policies and/or processes shall be applied if a circumstance is not specifically addressed herein.

III. Authority and Responsibilities
A. The Director of Student Life serves as the University Student Conduct Administrator (hereinafter as “Conduct Administrator”) and oversees the implementation of the Student Conduct Code (hereinafter as “Code”).
B. Student Conduct Boards (hereinafter as “Conduct Boards”) are comprised of students, faculty and staff trained and supported in their role as decision-makers in conduct proceedings.

C. Other officials from the Division of Student Affairs serve as Student Conduct Officers (hereinafter as “Conduct Officers”) and report to the Conduct Administrator on conduct matters.

D. In cases where a student’s conduct violates both the Code and departmental or program policies, the Code will supersede the other policy.

IV. Idaho State University Student Conduct Code

Preamble

ISU’s Code is predicated on the premise that communities have the authority and the responsibility to establish standards and expectations for the behavior of their members. The late Dr. Ernest Boyer, President of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, identified six principles of community that provide the foundation for the University’s Code:

Purposeful
A college is an educationally purposeful community, a place where faculty and students share academic goals and work together to strengthen teaching and learning.

Open
A college is an open community, a place where freedom of expression is uncompromisingly protected and where civility is powerfully affirmed.

Just
A college is a just community, a place where the sacredness of the person is honored and where diversity is aggressively pursued.

Disciplined
A college is a disciplined community, a place where individuals accept their obligations to the group and where well-defined governance procedures guide behavior for the common good.

Caring
A college is a caring community, a place where the well-being of each member is sensitively supported and where service to others is encouraged.

Celebrative
A college is a celebrative community, one in which the heritage of the institution is remembered and where rituals affirming both tradition and change are widely shared.¹

¹ Campus Life: In Search of Community (1990). The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. Ernest L. Boyer (frwrd); Princeton, NJ. (verbatim on pp. 7-8)
The Code contains conduct standards based on values essential to a flourishing academic community, such as honesty, integrity, respect, civility and fairness. The standards are higher than the general law, as our expectations for ISU students, as future alumni and citizen-leaders, are considerable. That said, the University strives to honor core tenets of our society and our academic legacy, such as free expression. Therefore, expression that may be offensive or unpopular may not be actionable under this Code. Further, those who administer the Code attempt to facilitate hearings and sanctions that consider the developmental and educational needs of students, whenever possible.

Students are also citizens of the larger society. As citizens, they retain those rights, protections and guarantees of fair treatment that are held by all citizens. In addition, students are subject to the reasonable and basic standards of the University regarding discipline and maintenance of an educational institution. The enforcement of the student's duties to the larger society is, however, the responsibility of the legal and judicial authorities established for that purpose.

Article I: Definitions

All definitions appertain to the Student Conduct Code; definitions in this policy may not be the same as other University policies.

A. “Academic” refers to school-related endeavors, whether the school is academic, professional or technical.

B. “Accused” means any student accused of violating the Code. The accused may also be referred to as a Respondent.

C. “Address of Record” is the student's ISU email address and/or the address on file with the Office of the Registrar. Notice is considered to have been received if sent to either of these addresses.

D. “Complainant” means any person who submits a complaint alleging an ISU student violated the Code. When an individual believes he or she has been victimized by a student’s misconduct, he or she will have the same rights under the Code as are provided to complainants, even if they did not submit the complaints.

E. “Conduct” is a manner of behaving or acting, including inaction when asked to act or when a reasonably prudent person would know to act.

F. “Conduct Proceedings” is a general term referring to University processes and procedures established within the Code for the purpose of resolving allegations and complaints of student misconduct. These proceedings include administrative resolution meetings, conduct board hearings, and appeals.

G. “Faculty member” or “Instructor” is a person responsible for teaching a class or laboratory or other instructional activities. This definition includes instructors (regardless of rank), instructional staff, graduate assistants, visiting lecturers, and affiliate or visiting faculty.

H. “May” is used in the permissive sense.

I. “Members of the University community” refers to students, faculty members, staff members, administrators (including governing board members), or any other person employed by or volunteering for, the University. The Conduct Administrator and/or the Vice President for Student Affairs determine a person’s status in a particular situation.

J. “Policy” means the written regulations of the University as found in, but not limited to, the Code, Standards of Residence, Information Technology Acceptable Use policy, and University catalogs.

K. “Protected Class” is a term used in anti-discrimination law to describe characteristics or factors that cannot be targeted for discrimination and harassment. For purposes of the Code, the following characteristics are considered “Protected Classes” and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, individuals cannot be discriminated against based on these characteristics: race, color, religion, gender, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, marital and familial status or any other status protected under applicable federal, state, local law or ISU policy.

L. “Shall” is used in the imperative sense.

M. “Student” includes all persons taking courses at the University, either full-time or part-time, pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional studies, whether degree or non-degree seeking, and continuing education classes or special programs. Persons who withdraw after allegedly violating the Code who are not officially enrolled for a particular term but have a continuing relationship with the University or who have submitted an application for admission are considered students.

N. “Student Conduct Boards” refer to persons authorized by the Conduct Administrator to determine whether a student has violated the Code and to impose sanctions when a Code violation has been committed.

O. “Student Conduct Officer” is a University staff or faculty member authorized by the Conduct Administrator, on a case-by-case basis, to impose sanctions upon students found to have violated the Code. The Conduct Administrator is also a Student Conduct Officer.

P. “Student Organization” means any number of students who have complied with the requirements for registered student organizations at the University.

Q. “University premises” includes all land, buildings, facilities, and other property possessed, owned, used, or controlled by ISU (including adjacent streets and sidewalks).
Article II: University Authority to Regulate Student Conduct

Students are subject to University authority. The University derives its authority to regulate student conduct from the Idaho State Board of Education\(^2\). The President of the University delegates this authority to the Vice President for Student Affairs who then extends the authority to the Conduct Administrator.

A. The Conduct Administrator and/or the Vice President for Student Affairs may develop policies for the administration of the Code and establish procedural rules for Conduct Officers and Student Conduct Boards that are consistent with the Code.

B. The Conduct Administrator determines which Conduct Officer or Conduct Boards will hear a particular complaint. The Vice President for Student Affairs evaluates requests for appeals and determines who may hear them.

C. The University’s authority to regulate conduct applies to:

1. Students, registered student organizations, and student groups if their collective action violates the Code and displays a lack of internal control that is detrimental to the purposes of the University or the maintenance of a secure and productive learning environment.

2. Students, from the time they submit an application for admission through the actual awarding of a degree, even though conduct may occur before classes begin or after classes end, as well as during the academic year and during periods between terms of enrollment. If misconduct occurred prior to the awarding of a degree, but was not discovered until after the degree was awarded, the University may institute its conduct proceedings.

3. Students, even if they withdraw from school while a complaint, investigation or conduct proceeding is pending or underway.

4. Conduct that occurs on University premises (all locations and centers), at University sponsored activities, and off-campus conduct that adversely affects the University community and/or the pursuit of its objectives. The Conduct Administrator and/or the Vice President for Student Affairs decide whether the Code shall be applied to conduct occurring off campus on a case-by-case basis at their discretion.

5. Conduct that occurs while students are studying in another country even if the University does not coordinate or supervise the experience.

D. Misconduct that is also a Violation of Law

University conduct proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and the Code (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution. Conduct proceedings under the Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings at the discretion of the Conduct Administrator in consultation with the Vice President for Student Affairs and General Counsel. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under the Code shall not be subject to change because criminal charges arising out of the same facts giving rise to violation of University rules were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the criminal law defendant.

Article III. Conduct Rules and Regulations

The University encourages students to approach personal decision making with the following expectations and principles, but not all behaviors that violate these principles may be actionable under the code.

- The University expects its students to be honest, forthright and authentic. Integrity is basic to the University’s mission and core functions of teaching, learning, research and public service. As a public institution, the University is a steward of shared resources and public trust, and students assume an obligation to assist faculty, staff and administrators in meeting the responsibilities of stewardship.

- The University values civil discourse, equity and human dignity as essential to supporting the marketplace of ideas. Students are expected to be considerate and respectful of others’ efforts to share and receive ideas even though they may disagree with them. The best remedy or recourse for offensive expression, ideas or opinions is more expression and the introduction of other ideas.

- The University expects students to respect and honor the core functions and processes of the University and to act in a manner that allows those functions (e.g. learning, teaching, research, public service, free expression, and enforcement of campus regulations) to progress without unnecessary impediments.

- The University expects students to respect the rights and dignity of each individual in all contexts, but particularly in close interpersonal relationships. All people should be afforded autonomy and the ability to live free from violence, discrimination, harassment, threats, coercion or the use of force.

The proscribed behaviors that follow are not an exhaustive list, but represent types of student misconduct that have occurred on campus. Any student, student organization, or student group found responsible for committing or attempting to commit the following misconduct will be subject to conduct sanctions.
A. Acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to the following:

1. Furnishing false information to the University. This includes filing false, knowingly incomplete or intentionally exaggerated reports or documents with Public Safety, the Vice President for Student Affairs, or other departments, staff and faculty.
2. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any University document, record, or instrument of identification including parking passes or any document, record, or instrument requested by or provided to the University.
3. Unauthorized possession, duplication or use of keys or access codes to any University premises or unauthorized entry to or use of University premises.
4. Cheating on tests administered by any ISU testing center

Possible violations of the ISU Academic Dishonesty Policy are administered separately by faculty members and academic administrators. Certain behaviors may violate both the Academic Dishonesty Policy and this section, or others, of the Code. In that case, the Conduct Administrator will consult with the relevant department(s) and determine whether one process or both will be utilized.

B. Disruptive or obstructive actions or activities, including but not limited to the following:

1. Disruption or obstruction of teaching, research, administration, conduct proceedings, Public Safety proceedings, other University activities, or its public service functions on or off campus. This includes speech that is manifestly unreasonable in time, place or manner.
2. Participating in an on-or off-campus demonstration, riot or activity that disrupts the normal operations of the University and/or infringes on the rights of other members of the University community; leading or inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal activities within any campus building or area.
3. Obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on University premises or at University sponsored or supervised functions.
4. Persistent speech, expression or action that is so objectively offensive or concerning that it interferes with other's ability to live, learn, work or pursue educational opportunities at the University.

3 Examples of speech that are inconsistent with time, place and manner include shouting in a residence hall at 2:00 AM when no emergency would justify using elevated volume; intentionally interrupting an instructor during a lecture with statements that are not germane to the lecture topic or after being asked to stop interrupting; heckling performers during a public performance; and using sound amplification equipment during protests or demonstrations that interfere with nearby classes.

4 The University has used the word “concerning” to represent certain types of speech that would lead hearers of the speech to become concerned for health, safety or wellbeing of the speaker. For example, if a student persistently speaks of suicide to his or her roommates but is unresponsive to their requests to get help, the student may be disrupting the living environment because the roommates are unable to focus on anything other than preventing the suicide.
C. Disorderly and/or Irresponsible Conduct, including but not limited to the following:

1. Public conduct that is objectively offensive, lewd or indecent.
2. Breach of peace, or aiding, abetting, or procuring another person to breach the peace on University premises or at functions sponsored by, or participated in by the University or members of the community.
3. Conduct that endangers the health and safety of others and/or the public.

D. Destruction, Damage, or Misuse of University or Private Property: This includes, but is not limited to, all University property, whether that property be buildings, library materials, computer hardware, software and network, trees and shrubbery or University files and records; violation of University or Associated Students of Idaho State University (ASISU) rules for use of campus facilities; tampering with safety equipment, including but not limited to fire alarms, fire equipment or escape mechanisms and elevators.

E. Theft, including but not limited to the following:

1. Taking or removing others’ property (including the University’s), or attempting to take it without their knowledge or permission, or by the use, attempted use or threat of force or violence. Theft also occurs when a student appropriates retail goods or services without paying the retailer for them.
2. Assuming or appropriating the identity of another person for any reason.

F. Failure to comply with directions of University officials, including ISU Public Safety officials, acting in performance of their duties, and/or failure to identify oneself to these persons when requested to do so.

G. Dangerous Materials: Illegal or unauthorized possession of firearms, explosives, other weapons, or dangerous chemicals on University premises or use of any such item, even if legally possessed, in a manner that harms, threatens or causes others to fear for their safety.

H. Misuse of Technology: Abuse of computer facilities and resources, including but not limited to:

1. Unauthorized entry into a file, to use, read, or change the contents, or for any other purpose.
2. Unauthorized transfer of a file.
3. Use of another individual’s identification and/or password or sharing one’s identification and/or password with others.

5 Examples of disorderly conduct that may endanger the health and safety of others include ignoring an order to be quarantined when diagnosed with a highly contagious and life-threatening illness, urinating or defecating in an indoor facility outside of a bathroom, or engaging in a typically private behavior in a public place.
4. Interfering with the normal operation of the University computing system or the work of another student, faculty member, or University official.

5. Sending obscene, harassing, or threatening messages.

6. Downloading, sharing, and/or distributing copyrighted materials without the permission of the copyright holder and/or any other use of computing/network resources in violation of copyright law. This includes unauthorized peer-to-peer file sharing, which may subject students to civil and criminal liabilities in addition to conduct sanctions ranging from warning to expulsion.

7. Any violation of the University Acceptable Use Policy and/or the Student Computing Contract.

I. Physical Abuse: Pushing, hitting, kicking, choking, battering, assaulting etc.

J. Intimidation: Behavior or conduct intended to induce fear in others for the purpose of deterring them from acting or forcing them to act against their will.

K. Threats: Making statements or engaging in non-verbal acts that communicate clear and serious expression of an intent to commit an act of unlawful violence to a particular person, persons, or property or has the intent to inflict severe emotional distress.

L. Coercion: The use or threat of physical violence or the improper use of actual or perceived power, position, status or influence to pressure others to do something against their will.

M. Bullying: Repeated adverse acts or actions directed at a specific person(s) that are unwanted and unprovoked and are used to establish and maintain an actual or perceived imbalance of power between the aggressor and the subject of aggression.6

N. Hazing: An act which endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student, or which destroys or removes public or private property, for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in a group or organization. The express or implied consent of the victim will not be a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing is not a neutral act and are violations of this rule, as are violations of the Idaho Hazing Statute §18-917.

O. Discrimination: Discrimination occurs when an individual or group of individuals is treated adversely (i.e. denied rights, benefits, equitable treatment or access to Bullying includes harsh practical jokes, spreading rumors and gossip, teasing, taunting and using social media to humiliate and ridicule others; using aggressive communication such as insults, offensive remarks, shouting, yelling, angry outbursts, and invading others personal space; and taking intentional actions to exclude or ostracize others from a group.

facilities available to others) based on the individual’s or group’s actual or perceived membership in a protected class.

P. Harassment: Unwanted or unwelcome behavior or conduct toward an individual because of his or her protected class that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive to have the impact of unreasonably interfering with a person’s ability to live, learn, work or recreate at the University. 7

Q. Relationship Violence and/or Intimate Partner Abuse: The use of physical violence, coercion, threats, intimidation, isolation, stalking or other forms of emotional, sexual or economic abuse directed towards a partner in a dating or domestic relationship constitutes relationship violence. This includes any behavior that intimidates, isolates, frightens, threatens, or otherwise physically, emotionally or economically harms one’s partner. Relationship violence can be a single act or a pattern of behavior in relationships.8 The University will use federal regulations to classify a relationship as dating or domestic for the purposes of reporting.9

R. Stalking: A course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear. A course of conduct can be defined as a pattern of behavior composed of two or more acts over a period of time, however short, that evidence a continuity of purpose. Stalking behavior includes communicating orally, in writing, or electronically with another individual or directing someone else to do so or remaining in the physical presence of the other person.

S. Invasion of Privacy: Making, using, disclosing or distributing a recording or a photograph of a person in a location or situation in which that person has a reasonable expectation of privacy and is unaware of the recording or does not consent to it.10

T. Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct

To better inform students about what actions or behaviors constitute gender-based and sexual misconduct, the definitions of consent, force and incapacitation precede specific policy violations.11

8 This definition was adapted from Columbia University’s Gender-based Misconduct Policy for Students.

9 Information regarding the regulations for defining dating and domestic violence can be found in the Federal Register, Vol. 79, No. 202 (October 20, 2014) 34 CFR Part 668.

10 This definition was obtained from the University of Florida Non-Discrimination/Harassment/Invasion of Privacy Policies.

Consent
Sexual permission that is clear, knowing and voluntary. Consent is active, not passive. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity.

- Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity.
- Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.
- In order to give consent, one must be of legal age, 18 in the state of Idaho.
- Sexual activity with someone who is known to be—or based on the circumstances should reasonably have been known to be—mentally or physically incapacitated (by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout), constitutes a lack of consent and is a violation of the Code. This also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, sleep, involuntary physical restraint, or from the consumption of incapacitating substances.

Individuals who consent to sex must be able to understand what they are doing. Under this policy, “No” always means “No,” and “Yes” may not always mean, “Yes.” Anything but a clear, knowing and voluntary consent to any sexual activity is equivalent to a “no.” The use of alcohol or drugs will never function as a defense to a Gender-Based or Sexual Misconduct violation.

Force
The use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcomes resistance or produces consent.¹²

Incapacitation
A state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, or how” of their circumstances or interpersonal interaction that could lead to sex).

Incapacitating Substances

¹² ATIXA Note 1: Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

ATIXA Note 2: There is no requirement that a person resists the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent. The presence of force is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance. Sexual activity that is forced is by definition non-consensual, but non-consensual sexual activity is not by definition forced.
The use and/or distribution of Rohypnol, Ketamine, GHB, Scopolamine, or other substance of this type. Possession or administration of one of these drugs is a violation of the Code. More information on these drugs can be found at http://www.911rape.org/

1. Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, such as sexual assault or acts of sexual violence.

   There are two types of sexual harassment: Quid Pro Quo and Hostile Environment.

   Quid pro Quo (this for that) Harassment: Employment or program-based (academic or extracurricular) decisions that result in a significant change in status because an employee or student's submission to or rejection of unwelcome verbal, nonverbal or physical sexual conduct. Examples include:

   - Requiring sexual favors in exchange for hiring, a promotion, a raise in pay, a better grade, more playing time, or a leadership position.
   - Disciplining, demoting or firing an employee because he or she ends a consensual relationship.
   - Disciplining, demoting or removing a club member from a student club because he or she ends a consensual relationship.
   - Refusing to write recommendations for a student because he or she refuses sexual advances.
   - Changing work or academic assignments because an employee or student refuses invitations for a date or other private, social meetings.

   Hostile Environment Harassment: Sexually harassing conduct that is sufficiently serious to deny or limit the student's ability to participate in or benefit from a University program or employment. In determining whether a denial or limitation has occurred, the University examines all the relevant circumstances from an objective and subjective perspective including:

   - The type of harassment (e.g. whether it was verbal or physical);
   - The frequency and severity of the conduct;
   - The age, sex, and relationship of the individuals involved (e.g. teacher-student or student-student);
   - The setting and context in which the harassment occurred;
   - Whether other incidents have occurred at the University; and
   - Other relevant factors.
A hostile environment can occur when sexual harassment is severe or pervasive. The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to demonstrate a hostile environment, particularly if the harassment is physical. Examples include:

- One incident of sexual assault or sexual violence;
- Persistent unwelcome remarks about someone’s body parts or looks;
- Displaying pornography on a laptop in class so that others stop coming to class or cannot concentrate; and
- Stalking\textsuperscript{13}

2. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact (or attempts to commit same): Any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object, by one person upon another person (regardless of gender) that is without consent and/or by force. This includes but is not limited to intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/of/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice.

3. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse or Rape (or attempts to commit same): Any sexual intercourse however slight, with any object, by one person upon another person (regardless of gender) that is without consent and/or by force. This includes vaginal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger; anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger; and oral copulation (mouth to genital contact or genital to mouth contact), no matter how slight the penetration or contact.

4. Sexual Exploitation: Taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for the student’s own advantage or benefit, or to the benefit or advantage of anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses. Examples include but are not limited to:
   a. Invading sexual privacy;
   b. Prostitution another student;
   c. Non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity;
   d. Going beyond the boundaries of consent within sexual activity (such as, letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex, sharing sexual photos);
   e. Engaging in voyeurism;

\textsuperscript{13} US Dept. of Ed. Office for Civil Rights and US Dept of Justice, Civil Rights Division, University of Montana Letter of Findings, May 9, 2013, pgs. 4-5.
f. Knowingly transmitting an STI (Sexually Transmitted Infection) or HIV (Human Immunodeficiency virus) to another student;
g. Exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genitals;
h. Stalking, hazing, intimate partner violence and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation.

U. Smoking: The University maintains smoke-free campuses. Smoking with any device or product, including e-cigarettes, is prohibited on University premises unless a person is on a public street or sidewalk maintained by the surrounding municipality.

V. Drugs: Use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of controlled substances, as defined by the United States Department of Justice, and synthetic substances used as a substitute for a controlled substance. Abusing prescription drugs is also prohibited. Violation of alcohol or drug regulations may lead to notification of a student’s parents. Additionally, a conviction for violation of state or federal drug laws may jeopardize federal financial aid.

The University expects its students to comply with local, state, and federal laws regarding proscribed substances, in addition to University policies. We recognize that our society provides certain privileges to its citizens at different ages, but following the law and University policies, even while working to change them, is part of our obligations as citizens.

W. Alcohol: Illegal or unauthorized procurement, consumption, use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of alcoholic beverages. Violation of alcohol or drug regulations may lead to notification of a student’s parents. Alcoholic beverages may not, in any circumstances, be used by, possessed by or distributed to persons under twenty-one (21) years of age.

1. Regulations
   a. Consumption and possession of alcohol is prohibited in general use areas and all University residence halls. General use areas include all University owned, leased, or operated facilities, and campus grounds.
   b. Consumption and possession of alcohol, by persons of legal age, is only authorized in the University apartments and other areas designated by the President with the approval of the State Board of Education. Distribution of alcohol to a minor is prohibited.
   c. Possession and consumption of alcohol by a minor is prohibited.
   d. Possession or consumption of alcohol in areas that are designated as "alcohol free" is prohibited.
   e. If a student violates the Code while under the influence of alcohol, this policy will also apply.
   f. Sale of alcohol, unless authorized by the State Board of Education and with the appropriate licenses and permits, is prohibited.

2. Enforcement
   a. All incidents of alcohol violations shall be reported to the Public Safety Office.
   b. All reports of incidents involving alcohol will be forwarded to the Conduct Administrator.
   c. The Conduct Administrator, or designee, will be responsible for the following:
      i. Determining if a reported incident constitutes a violation of the University alcohol regulations.
      ii. Recording and tracking all students responsible for alcohol violations.
      iii. Notifying the criminal justice system, when warranted, of the behavior of an individual involved in an incident.
      iv. Enforcing sanctions described.

3. Sanctions
   a. Infractions and Mandatory Sanctions:

      The sanctions described are minimum sanctions and do not limit the disciplinary power of the University in any matter involving Code violations.
i. First infraction of the Academic Year – The student must pay for and complete an alcohol education program assigned by a Conduct Officer and will be placed on probation.

ii. Second infraction in the Academic Year without injury or conduct likely to lead to injury – The student is placed on conduct probation and, at the student’s expense, must submit to a substance abuse evaluation administered by a qualified authority. The student will provide the evaluation results or authorize the release of the evaluation results to the Conduct Administrator, or designee.

iii. Second infraction in the Academic Year with injury or conduct likely to lead to injury – The student is placed on conduct probation, and, at the student’s expense, must submit to a substance abuse evaluation performed by a recognized authority. The student will provide the evaluation results or authorize the release of the evaluation results to the Conduct Administrator. The Conduct Administrator or designee may share all records of the incident with the Pocatello Police Department or other appropriate law enforcement agencies as deemed necessary.

iv. Third infraction in the Academic Year without injury or conduct likely to lead to injury – The student is suspended from the University for one academic semester.

v. Third Infraction in the Academic Year with injury or conduct likely to lead to injury – The student is suspended from the University for at least one academic year and all records involving the incident may be shared with the Pocatello Police Department or other appropriate law enforcement agencies as deemed necessary by the Conduct Administrator or designee.

b. Recording Cycle for Violations

For the purpose of recording alcohol violations, the University will use a calendar year beginning on the first day of school.

c. Right of Appeal

Students may appeal to the Vice President for Student Affairs. The procedure described in the Code will apply for all appeals. Students that reside in University Housing and violate the alcohol regulations while on or in housing premises will be governed by the policy and appeals process described in the University Housing Standards of Residence Life Handbook.

X. Misuse of the Student Conduct Code and Conduct Proceedings, including but not limited to:

1. Failing to comply with a notice from a Conduct Officer, Conduct Board, or other University official to set an appointment or appear for a meeting or hearing.
2. Falsifying, distorting, or misrepresenting information before a Conduct Officer or Conduct Board.

3. Disrupting or interfering with conduct proceedings.

4. Submitting a complaint in bad faith.

5. Attempting to discourage others from participating in or using conduct proceedings.

6. Attempting to influence the impartiality of a Conduct Officer or a member of a Conduct Board prior to, and/or during the course of conduct proceedings.

7. Harassing or intimidating a Conduct Officer or a member of a Conduct Board prior to, during and/or after a conduct proceeding.

8. Failing to comply with the sanction(s) imposed through a conduct proceeding.

9. Influencing or attempting to influence another person to commit an abuse of the Code.

10. Retaliating against any person for participating in a protected activity. The university considers the following activities protected:

- Making a report that alleges misconduct
- Speaking with University investigators about alleged misconduct
- Supporting a person who is participating in an investigation or conduct proceeding
- Sharing information with the University as a witness in an investigation or conduct proceeding.

Y. Other Acts of Misconduct: Violations of any local, state or federal laws and/or any published University policies may be actionable under the Code.

Article IV: Student Conduct Process and Procedural Rights

A. Information Alleging Student Misconduct

Any person may share information with the University alleging a student has violated the Code. Most often, information about an alleged violation is shared with ISU Public Safety officers who then create a standard report and forward it to the Conduct Administrator for consideration as a possible violation of the Code. Alternatively, a person may prepare a written statement containing information that alleges a violation and submit it to the Conduct Administrator or the Office of Student Affairs. Information about alleged violations of the Code should be shared as soon as possible. However, there are no time limitations on when information alleging misconduct can be brought to the attention of Public Safety, Student Affairs, or the Conduct Administrator.

B. Review of Information Alleging Misconduct
The Conduct Administrator reviews ISU Public Safety reports and statements from concerned individuals to determine if the alleged facts, if true, would constitute a violation of the Code’s provisions. At the time of review, the Conduct Administrator assumes the claims made by the reporter to be true.

C. Investigations

Depending on the amount, clarity and specificity of the information presented to the Conduct Administrator, it may be helpful for the Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer to investigate the allegations for the purpose of obtaining additional information. Often, the content of reports from Public Safety or others is sufficiently informative to request meetings with students accused of alleged misconduct without conducting an investigation. The decision to conduct an investigation for most allegations of misconduct is the prerogative of the Conduct Administrator and based on her/his professional judgment and discretion. For allegations of sexual or gender-based misconduct, the Conduct Administrator confers with the University’s Title IX Coordinator to determine if an investigation is needed and who should conduct the investigation.

Students may be asked to meet with the Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer as part of the preliminary investigation for the purpose of gathering information that corroborates the alleged facts. During these meetings, students may admit to misconduct and agree to participate in an Administrative Resolution Meeting (see below) while concurrently participating in an investigation.

When the amount, clarity and specificity of the information presented in a report of misconduct is sufficient for a reasonable person to conclude the accused student is responsible, students will be invited to participate in an Administrative Resolution Meeting without an investigation.

D. Administrative Resolution Meetings

The Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer will notify students accused of misconduct in writing and request a meeting to discuss the allegations. This meeting will provide the student with an opportunity to:

1. Review the Student Conduct Code’s procedural provisions,
2. Learn about the allegations and specific policies that may have been violated,
3. Discuss the information alleging misconduct, and
4. Present an alternative explanation for the allegations.

Students who do not respond to the notice of allegations and request for an Administrative Resolution Meeting within three (3) business days may be subject to the decision of the Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer without input. The same result may occur if the student schedules a meeting and subsequently chooses not to attend.
The Administrative Resolution Meeting with students is considered an opportunity to be heard on the allegations, and will afford students many of the procedural rights provided to students during a Student Conduct Board hearing. The Administrative Resolution Meeting provides the student with an opportunity to resolve the allegations in a less formal setting. The Administrative Resolution Meeting may be audio recorded at the discretion of the Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer.

E. Outcomes of an Administrative Resolution Meeting

The following outcomes may result from an Administrative Resolution Meeting:

1. A Finding of No Responsibility

   The accused student may persuade the Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer that no violation occurred based on an alternative explanation of alleged facts and corroborative evidence. The student will be found not responsible for the alleged misconduct.

2. Mutual Finding of Responsibility

   The accused student may review the alleged facts and available evidence and admit responsibility for the misconduct. In these circumstances, the finding is mutual because both the Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer and the accused student agree the student was responsible. A student's willingness to acknowledge a violation of University policy will be considered when determining commensurate sanctions.

3. Administrative Finding of Responsibility

   The accused student may offer an alternative explanation of the alleged facts and contend she/he is not responsible for the alleged misconduct, but the available evidence contradicts and outweighs the student's explanation. The Conduct Administrator or designated Conduct Officer may find the student responsible notwithstanding the alternative explanation and impose commensurate sanctions.

   The accused student may reject the administrative finding of responsibility and request the report of alleged misconduct be reviewed and adjudicated by a Student Conduct Board.

F. Student Conduct Board Hearings

Student Conduct Board hearings are held when the accused student rejects an administrative finding of responsibility. The first objective of the empaneled Conduct Board members is to ascertain whether the accused student is responsible for the alleged misconduct. If a student is found to be responsible, the Conduct Board’s second objective is to determine what sanctions are commensurate with the committed violation.
The Conduct Board is comprised of faculty, staff and students that are trained to serve as adjudicators. Conduct Board members serve on a voluntary basis. To the extent possible, the Conduct Administrator seeks to identify Conduct Board members that are representative of a diverse campus community. The Conduct Board for the hearing will be composed of no less than three (3) and no more than five (5) members drawn from a larger pool of trained personnel. The composition of the Conduct Board may be affected by the time of year at which the hearing occurs and the availability of Conduct Board members at times that are suitable for the complainant and the accused.

G. Procedural Guidelines for Student Conduct Board Hearings

1. Student Conduct Board Hearings are private. Only the complainant, accused, their advisors, witnesses, members of the Conduct Board and the Student Conduct Administrator of Officers may attend. However, at the discretion of the Conduct Administrator, other persons may be admitted. Hearings are recorded. The recording is the property of the University and maintained according to applicable laws and policies.

2. The complainant and accused may be accompanied by an advisor of their choosing. Students should provide the name of their advisor to the Conduct Administrator no fewer than three (3) business days prior to the hearing. The advisor does not speak directly to Conduct Board members or otherwise participate in the hearing. However, the advisor may confer with the student that they have accompanied. The complainant and accused are responsible for presenting their own information. A student should select an advisor whose schedule permits attendance. No delays shall be granted on the basis of an advisor’s scheduling conflicts. If requested, the Conduct Administrator will recommend an advisor.

3. The hearing may be held even if the complainant or accused do not attend provided the Conduct Board can confirm there was a good faith effort to notify the complainant and the accused in writing. A complainant or accused may not appeal a Conduct Board decision based on their absence at the hearing unless unusual, exigent circumstances beyond their control, prevented attendance as determined by the Conduct Administrator, whose decision is final.

4. The complainant and the accused may request that an empaneled Conduct Board member be excluded from participating in a hearing on the basis of an inability to serve impartially.

5. The complainant and accused may call and question witnesses. All questions asked of witnesses must be directed to the Conduct Board Chair. The names of witnesses who will be called to testify at the hearing must be provided to the Conduct Administrator no fewer than three (3) business days prior to the hearing. The University cannot compel witnesses to testify. It is the responsibility of the complainant and the accused to persuade their witnesses to attend. In general, character witnesses are inappropriate and do not contribute to fact-finding or determining responsibility. Rather the Conduct Board’s focus is on witnesses who may have information about the incident(s) in question.

6. The complainant and accused may present evidence (e.g. records, exhibits, artifacts, written statements, etc.) of their choosing at the hearing. Whether the evidence is relevant or accepted as information for consideration by the Conduct Board is at the sole discretion of the Conduct Board Chair.

7. Formal rules of process, procedure, and/or technical rules of evidence, such as those applied in criminal or civil court, are not used in Conduct Board proceedings.

8. All procedural questions and/or exceptions are subject to the final decision of the Conduct Board Chair.

9. The complainant and accused will be invited to give opening statements. Then the complainant presents his/her case followed by the accused student’s presentation. The complainant and the accused will have the opportunity to question witnesses through the Conduct Board Chair. Lastly, the complainant is invited to give a closing statement followed by the accused.

10. The Conduct Board shall go into closed session following the hearing with only Conduct Board members present. Deliberations are not recorded. The Conduct Board’s decision shall be based on a preponderance of the evidence, whether “it is more likely than not,” that the accused is responsible for the alleged Code violation(s). The Conduct Board’s decision may be rendered with or without statements of fact or comments. However, in cases involving sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and stalking the Conduct Board will provide a reason for its finding.

11. If an accused student or complainant chooses not to attend the hearing, the hearing may commence without his or her presence. However, no assumptions shall be made about the accused student’s responsibility due to his or her absence.

12. The Conduct Board may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the complainant, accused, and/or witnesses during the hearing by providing accommodations not limited to separate facilities, using a visual screen and/or by permitting participation by telephone, videophone, closed circuit television, video conferencing, videotape, audio tape, written statement, or other means. Implementing such measures is done at the sole judgment of the Conduct Administrator.

13. The complainant and accused may be verbally notified by the Conduct Administrator of the outcome of the hearing within forty-eight (48) hours after the Conduct Board has reached a decision. Written notification will be sent within five (5) business days.

H. Sanctions

1. In keeping with the University’s focus, sanctions may include educational and learning based outcomes as appropriate. The following sanctions may be imposed, singly or in combination, upon any student found to have violated the Code:

   a. Written Warning – A written notice to the student that the student is violating or has violated University policies. A record of the warning is kept in the student’s file.

   b. Probation – A written reprimand for violation of specified policies. Probation is for a designated period of time. Sanctions may include loss of privileges or benefits. Additional sanctions up to and including suspension or expulsion may occur for additional violations of the Code.

   c. Loss of Privileges – Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time, including the privilege of representing the University in official capacities. However, decisions about eligibility to participate in NCAA intercollegiate competitions are reserved to the Department of Athletics.

   d. Restitution – Compensation for loss, damage, or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement. Financial penalties may be added to the student’s ISU financial account.

   e. Discretionary Sanctions – Work assignments, essays, service to the University or the community, or other related discretionary assignments.

   f. University Housing Suspension – Separation of the student from University Housing for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified.

   g. University Housing Expulsion – Permanent separation of the student from University Housing.

   h. University Suspension – Separation of the student from the University for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to apply to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified and all sanctions must be completed prior to applying for re-admission. Suspension shall in no case be longer than two (2) calendar years. Suspensions will be recorded on the student’s University transcripts.

   i. University Expulsion – Permanent separation of the student from the University. Expulsions will be recorded on the student’s University transcripts.

   j. Alcohol Sanctions – Sanctions have been established for alcohol violations at the University. See Article III.W.3.
k. Revocation of Admission and/or Degree – Admission to or a degree awarded from ISU may be revoked for fraud, misrepresentation, or other violation of University standards in obtaining the degree, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.

l. Withholding Degree – ISU may withhold awarding a degree otherwise earned until the completion of the student conduct process set forth in the Code, including the completion of all sanctions imposed, if any.

2. Sanctions for Sexual Misconduct
   a. Any student found responsible for Non-Consensual Sexual Contact (where no intercourse has occurred) will likely receive a sanction ranging from probation to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous Code violations.
   b. Any student found responsible for Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse will likely receive a sanction of suspension or expulsion depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous Code violations.
   c. Any student found responsible for Sexual Exploitation or Sexual Harassment will likely receive a sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous Code violations.

The Conduct Administrator or the Conduct Board may broaden or lessen any range of recommended sanctions in the case of serious mitigating circumstances or egregiously offensive behavior. There will be no deviation from the range of recommended sanctions unless compelling justification exists to do so.

3. A conduct sanction becomes part of the student’s permanent academic record only as set forth in this paragraph. A student’s permanent academic record includes any conduct sanction that comprises:
   a. suspension, which the University automatically records onto the student’s academic transcript, or
   b. expulsion, which the University automatically records onto the student’s academic transcript, or
   c. any revocation or withholding of the student’s degree.

4. Each registered student organization is offered the privilege to conduct its activities at the University, subject to its compliance with the Code. Accordingly, the University has discretion to impose upon any registered student organization any one or more of the following sanctions:
   a. each sanction described in Article IV.H.1
   b. loss of any applicable University-related privilege during any time period that the University specifies; and
c. permanent loss of either University registration or any other applicable University-related privilege.

I. Appeals

1. A decision reached or sanction assigned by the Conduct Board may be appealed by the accused student to the Vice President for Student Affairs within five (5) business days of receipt of the decision. In cases of alleged sexual misconduct, relationship violence, or stalking the complainant may also appeal. Such appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

2. Appeals may be heard by either the Vice President for Student Affairs or a three-person board at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

3. The appeal shall consist of a conversation with the appellant (in cases of sexual misconduct, with both parties) and a review of the verbatim record of the Conduct Board hearing or any notes from the hearing and supporting documents for one or more of the following purposes:
   a. To determine whether the Conduct Board hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and information presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the complainant a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present information that the Code was violated, and giving the accused student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a response to those allegations. Deviations from designated procedures will not be a basis for sustaining an appeal unless significant prejudice results.
   b. To determine whether the decision reached regarding the accused student was based on substantial information.
   c. To determine whether the sanction(s) imposed were appropriate for the violation of the Code that the student was found to have committed.
   d. To consider new information or evidence, unknown or unavailable to the parties during an investigation or prior conduct proceeding, that is sufficient to alter a decision of the Student Conduct Board.

4. If the appellate body grants the appeal based on any of the above grounds for appeal, then the following will occur:
   a. If there was significant prejudice resulting from procedural irregularities, the case will be remanded for a new hearing.
   b. If there was insufficient information for a finding of responsibility or non-responsibility, the appellate body may either reverse the decision or remand the case for a new hearing.
   c. If the sanctions are inappropriate for the violation, new sanctions may be imposed.
d. If there is new information sufficient to alter a decision or other relevant facts not known to the person appealing at the time of the original hearing, the case will be remanded for a new hearing.

e. A review of the appellate decision is available by the President of ISU in cases involving sanctions of suspension or expulsion. A letter requesting such a review shall be submitted to the Conduct Administrator within five (5) business days of receipt of the appellate decision.

f. Sanctions issued following Conduct Board hearings shall not be implemented until all appeals have been exhausted, waived, or made impermissible by time.

The Vice President for Student Affairs determines if remanded cases will be re-heard by the same Conduct Board or by a newly empaneled Conduct Board.

J. Disclosure of the Outcome of Student Conduct Hearings to Victims and/or Others

When an alleged Code violation constitutes a crime of violence (e.g., battery, sexual assault), and the Conduct Administrator or Conduct Board finds the alleged violator responsible, the University shall disclose the outcome and the sanction to the victim. In addition, when the alleged Code violation constitutes a crime of violence and the alleged violator is found responsible, the University, under applicable federal law, retains the right to disclose the name of the violator, the portion of the Code that was violated and the sanctions, to anyone to which that information may be re-disclosed. For a legal reference, see the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, §99.31(a)(13), and 20 U.S.C. 1232g.

K. Interim Suspension

In certain circumstances, the Conduct Administrator may impose an interim University or residence hall suspension prior to the initiation of conduct proceedings.

1. Interim suspension may be imposed only:
   a. to ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community or preservation of University property; or
   b. if the student poses an ongoing threat of disruption of, or interference with, the normal operations of the University.

2. During the interim suspension, a student shall be denied access to University Housing and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible, as the Conduct Administrator may determine to be appropriate.
3. The interim suspension does not replace the regular student conduct process, which shall proceed on the normal schedule, up to and through a Conduct Board hearing, if required.

4. Students placed on interim suspension may appeal the action by submitting a letter to the Conduct Administrator.

The student must be notified in writing of this action and the reasons for the interim suspension.

Students may request, in writing, that the Conduct Administrator reconsider the interim suspension after three (3) business days.

Article V: Interpretation, Revision and Records

A. Any question of interpretation or application of the Code shall be referred to the Conduct Administrator, or designee, for final determination.

B. Where the provisions and procedures of the Code conflict with specific laws and provisions of the United States of America, the State of Idaho, the policies of the Idaho State Board of Education or Idaho State University, the specific laws and policies would apply. If state or federal statutory provisions, regulatory guidance, or court interpretations or guidance provided by any authorized regulating agency change or conflict with University policy and/or procedure including but not limited to the hearing procedures set forth in the Code, the University’s policy and/or procedure will be deemed amended as of the time of the decision, ruling, legislative enactment or guidance.14

C. The Code shall be reviewed annually under the direction of the Conduct Administrator.

D. Student Conduct files and official records will be stored in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. The access, storage and destruction of these files and records will be in accordance and compliance with current law, related University policies and the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA).
