ISU Teaching and Learning Symposium

MARCH 28, 2024

12 PM - 4 PM

Rendezvous A,B,C Suites

Dr. Jevin West, Keynote Presenter

The Idaho State University Program for Instructional Effectiveness (PIE), the ISU Cultural Events Committee, and the College of Education will be hosting the second annual ISU Teaching and Learning Symposium. Faculty, staff, and graduate students are invited to attend and learn more about high-impact practices of teaching.

This year's keynote speaker will be Associate Professor, Dr. Jevin West who is the co-founder of the new Center for an Informed Public at the University of Washington which is aimed at resisting strategic misinformation, promoting an informed society, and strengthening democratic discourse. Dr. West's keynote presentation will cover generative AI, misinformation, and other topics related to AI, and will start at 12 p.m. in the Rendezvous Suites A, B, C. Lunch will be provided to the first 65 attendees who RSVP, followed by breakout sessions from 2 - 4 p.m. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet Dr. West and mix and mingle with fellow colleagues. Additionally, Dr. West will also be providing a community keynote in the evening at 5 p.m.

The keynote presentation and breakout sessions will be broadcast to all outreach campuses. Lunch will also be provided to outreach campus attendees who RSVP.*
