

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF IDAHO
STATE UNIVERSITY
EXECUTIVE CABINET AGENDA
SHIRLEY SARGENT FAMILY BOARDROOM, PSU
5:00 PM
NOVEMBER 15th, 2023

- I. President – President Watts shared that there are no meetings or office hours required next week, enjoy your break. President Watts shared that there will be a Martin Luther King Jr. celebration on January 15th that is requesting a few student representative to assist and present at this event. As a reminder, a proclamation for International Students Day will be signed and read at 6 pm on November 16th at the Pocatello City Hall. The main event will be on Friday, November 17th in the Pond Student Union Building beginning at 10 am, there will be speeches, club representatives as well as refreshments. President Watts also shared that the campus master plan is underway. In leadership council with week the idea to reduce computer lab stations by 80% was brought up and encouraged. The marketing campaign for 2023-2024 is Find Your ROAR and will bridge ISU brand with enrolment and involvement.
- II. SAB Director – SAB Director Morgan shared that there are only two remaining events for the month of November, Bingo and a Murder Mystery Dinner. All spring events will be finalized by the end of this week. Director Morgan also proposed a collaboration with SAB and ASISU where ASISU can table alongside SAB on Bengal Wednesdays to gain traction for ASISU.
- III. Vice President – Vice President Reynolds shared that he has been reworking the gear order design and is looking to send it back to MarCom for approval as soon as possible.
- IV. Vice President of Idaho Falls – Vice President Finco shared that she helped out at the Idaho Falls SAB lunch/trivia event which had a decent turn out. She has also been trying to find a time to meet with the Red Cross to set up a second blood drive in Idaho Falls.
- V. Vice President of Meridian – Vice President Position vacant.
- VI. Pro Temp – Senator Mishra shared that last week in Senate, Senator Jorgenson presented the budget breakdown of the proposed 9 month period supply funding. We also tabled the choir funding request for two weeks and approved some student travel funding. Our advisor, Matt Daily also shared last week that the university is beginning a master plan process to implement improvements around campus and the first stage of this are housing focus groups, which we were encouraged to sign up for. Last week we also had a presentation from Idaho Power regarding energy sustainability and lastly Bill 614 was released from Rules and Appointments.
- VII. Secretary – Secretary Madison nothing to report.

VIII. Director of Finance – Director Clark shared that he has been compiling and sending out documents to line items and will have this done by the end of this week.

IX. Director of Public Relations – Director McGroarty shared that he has posted for the Orange 7 Black Bowl. He is planning to partake in the COSGA Instagram takeover the week we are back from fall break. Over fall break he is also planning to post the videos of what ASISU is thankful for.

X. Director of Community Relations – Director Price met with a representative of United Way to look at collaboration ideas and projects within the university as well as the community of Pocatello.

XI. Director of Sustainability – Director Deo shared that last Friday, November 10th he met with the charter committee where the master plan for the campus was introduced. The idea of this is to propose and implement different ideas and projects around campus. There is also the possibility of an opportunity to utilize this project as a way to provide some internship opportunities for students.

XII. Director of Academic Affairs – Director Adams shared that she has finished her survey about university electives and is working on fostering responses for it. In her meeting with the board of academic integrity where the use of Chat GPT as a cheating tool is being discussed and reviewed. Their goal is to implement Chat GPT as an academic tool in classes instead of a cheating tool.

XIII. Director of Student Affairs – Director Whitney shared that she has her meeting with the Counselling and Mental Health Center tomorrow, Thursday November 16th, she will share her report of this meeting after the fall break. Director Whitney also shared that the comment box was installed but the location of it is less than ideal. In regards to the period product innovative she has been working with President Watts, Vice President Finco and Senator Jorgenson to ask for funding from the university and to work with facilities to have the university supply the period products as well as make a map of the period product dispensers.

XIV. Elections Commissioner – Commissioner Wilks shared that he is still updating the student election packet.

XV. Deputy Elections Commissioner – Commissioner Price absent.

XVI. Publicity Elections Commissioner – Commissioner Tucker absent.

XVII. OTHER

i. Discussion

1. Director Whitney shared her concerns about the comment box location.
  - a. Cabinet shared their suggestions and ideas for adding comment cards to the comment box.
2. Director Whitney shared the idea of solutions for parking issues on and around campus.

- a. Charge different amounts for parking passes.
  - b. Underutilized reserved parking spots.
3. Director McGroarty asked about posting ideas for the period products donations project.
4. Senator Yadav shared the ASISU Budget survey and asked for suggestions.
5. President Watts shared that the pool in Reeds gym is anticipated to be complete by July 2024.