At this time, ASISU is not in need of more funds but if there were a budget decrease, other expenses would have to be cut. The ASISU budget was proposed.

  - b. Idaho State Civic Symphony, presented by Heather Clark- The symphony performs five concerts per year and provides 150 free tickets to ISU students as well as $10,000 in scholarships. Only 40% of income comes from ticket sales and the other 60% comes from ASISU, grants, and individual contributions.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Student Athletic Advisory Council, Jessica Caw- They are requesting money to help pay for #SetTheExpectation Sexual Assault Awareness T-Shirts for student athletes. They previously talked to a faculty member who promised to take on the fundraising, but dropped the ball. Unfortunately, they had already ordered the shirts and are about $1,000 short of funds. Vice President Ruiz asked how the campaign has been going. Jessica- The campaign events have been well attended but in order to change the culture of ISU, the campaign needs to be continued each year. This is all being run by students and Student Athletic Advisory Council plans to keep it going. Vice President Beck asked what their outstanding balance is. Jessica- $1,005 so she is requesting $500. The Finance Committee will further discuss the subject and inform her of the outcome. MOVE TO COMMITTEE FOR 10 MINUTES. Ruiz/Beck. MOTION CARRIED. MOVE TO COME OUT OF COMMITTEE. Ruiz/Sargent. MOVE TO APPROVE CONTINGENCY FUNDING TO STUDENT ATHLETIC ADVISORY COUNCIL IN THE AMOUNT OF $505 AS WELL AS $2,500 FOR NEXT YEAR TO CONTINUE SET THE EXPECTATION CAMPAIGN. Ruiz/Jewkes. 4. International Affairs Council, Jillian Christiansen- The Frank Church Symposium has already had budget cuts, so any more cuts could potentially cause the discontinuation of it. For this reason, they would appreciate a budget increase. The benefits for students include meeting experts, getting futuristic ideas, internships with delegates, networking, and sharing knowledge. The event is on March 1-2. Senator Jewkes asked how many people come. Jillian- Around 100 people. Jewkes- how many students? Jillian- 100 high school students. Senator Kisson asked how much of an increase would be beneficial. Jillian- Between $3,000 and $5,000. Senator Stickney asked if they have received funding from other colleges in previous years. Jillian- Yes, but they have not been able to donate as much this year.
