- c. Matched deposits- Vice President Ruiz reports that clubs often put acronyms on matched deposit request forms instead of their club full name. Their constitution states they must record their full name, otherwise their request will not be considered. From now on, if a club does not use their full name, their request will be tabled. Val Davids emailed club presidents notifying them of this new rule. If they want to change their name, then they must go about it the right way. All senators should pass this message on.

CHAIR'S REPORT
