VI. ANNOUNCEMENT & CORRESPONDENCE

VII. OLD BUSINESS

VIII. NEW BUSINESS

IX. OTHER
   a. 5:00 – Meridian SAB (Ali Crane)
      i. ISU Meridian has improved their advertising events and encourages Bengal spirit and pride across campus. Their biggest and best attended event was the Idaho Steelhead Hockey Night for students.
      ii. For their onetime expense, Meridian SAB is requesting $500 for a pop-up poster stand to advertise their events.
   b. 5:15 – KISU (Jamon Anderson)
      i. This past year, KISU reached out to donors to receive help in fixing equipment.
      ii. Currently 50.2% of the recordings are by hosted by students. These recordings include sporting events, news, and talk show reporting. They want to continue to give more opportunities for students and possibly start a radio club.
      iii. Their onetime expense would be to update their software. They would prefer to use their own resources and find donors rather than pull ASISU funds.
   c. 5:30 – Bengal Theater (Jason Sperry)
      i. This year, the Bengal Theater has collaborated with many different departments and clubs to show movies and host fundraisers.
      ii. Since their renovation, they have had great success in getting more students to attend. Printed posters and calendars have been their most effective source of advertisement.
      iii. At this time, the Bengal Theater is not requesting a onetime expense.
iv. Motion to move to recess for 5 minutes: Pandey/Alvarez
v. Unanimous
vi. Motion: CARRIED
d. 5:45 – Pocatello SAB (Val Davidson and Tiffany Hatfield)
   i. Current attendance for events is high. SAB has been working hard with other clubs, departments and organizations to sponsor food and other goods for events hosted, all of which are hosted and planned by students.
   ii. SAB is not requesting extra funds for onetime expensive because they have money in their staff budget due to work study cuts.
e. 6:00 – Student Organizations (Val Davidson)
   i. Last year, Val hosted trainings for new club officers and their advisors on how to plan events and manage their club’s finances.
   ii. Their goals for the coming years are to make registering for events more streamline.
   iii. Val is asking for a onetime expense. She plans to use extra money from work study cuts to travel to Meridian campus once per semester to train clubs there.
f. 6:15 – Twin Falls SAB (Maria Beltran)
   i. Students of the Twin Falls campus want more events similar to Pocatello’s.
   ii. Because traveling to Pocatello, students are grateful that Twin Falls has its own graduation ceremony.
g. 6:25 – ISU Theatre and Dance (Meg Stover)
   i. Each year the Theatre and Dance department holds four plays and one dance performance. They are currently working with the women’s soccer team to train for the upcoming play.
   ii. ISU Theatre and Dance is currently not asking for a onetime expense. However, they are searching for support, attendance, and involvement in events. They have also been working hard to improve their marketing
