This bill changes the ASISU committees.

ASISU SENATE RULE BOOK

ARTICLE II—ASISU SENATOR

Section 4—Senate committees

The senate pro-tempore will assign each senator an approximately equal share of the standing ASISU committees including, but not limited to: Finance Committee, Rules Committee, and Appointment and Review Committee, Outreach and Diversity Committee, Communications Committee, and Service Committee. The ASISU pro-tempore and Idaho Falls vice president will give the ASISU president a written report of Committee chairs and Idaho Falls vice president will give the ASISU president a written report of Committee attendance and upcoming committee and campus events on a bi-weekly basis. All ASISU committee chairs will give a verbal report during Senate meetings about upcoming committee and campus events on a weekly basis.

A. Senate Rules Committee: The Senate Rules Committee shall be a committee that shall be responsible for ensuring all legislation meets all guidelines as set forth in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Rules. At least six (6) Senators shall be selected by the second (2nd) caucus of each semester by the Senate Pro-Tempore in caucus. The Senator Pro-Tempore shall select, during Caucus, one (1) member of the Rules Committee or two (2) co-chairs to serve as chair of the rules committee. Senate Rules and Appointment Committee: The Senate Rules and Appointment Committee shall be a committee that shall be responsible for ensuring all legislation meets all guidelines as set forth in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Rules. The Senate Rules and Appointment Committee shall also be responsible for reviewing, through interview and research, all ASISU appointments made by the President. At least three (3) Senators, representing a minimum of two (2) colleges, shall be selected by the Senate Pro-Tempore by the second (2nd) Senate meeting of each semester to serve on the Senate Rules and Appointment Committee. The Senate Pro-Tempore shall also select by the second (2nd) Senate meeting of each semester one (1) member of the Senate Rules and Appointment Committee to serve as chair of the committee or two (2) co-chairs to serve as chair of the Rules and Appointment Committee. The Senate Rules and Appointment Committee shall interview all appointments made and shall take a formal vote as a committee either for or against the nomination made. The Senate Appointment and Review committee shall bring voting results and a recommendation to the entire Senate to confirm or reject a Presidential nomination at the next Senate meeting following a Presidential appointment.

B. Senate Appointment and Reviews Committee: The Senate Appointment and Review Committee shall be a committee that shall be responsible for reviewing, through interview and research, all ASISU appointments made by the President. At least six (6) Senators, representing a minimum of four (4) colleges, shall be selected by the Senate Pro-Tempore by the second (2nd) Senate meeting of each semester to serve on the Senate Appointment and Review Committee. The Senate Pro-Tempore shall also select by the second (2nd) Senate meeting of each semester one (1) member of the Senate Appointment and Review Committee to serve as chair of the committee. The Senate Appointment and Review Committee shall interview all appointments made and shall take a formal vote as a committee either for or against the nomination made. The Senate Appointment and Review committee shall bring voting results and a recommendation to the entire Senate to confirm or reject a Presidential nomination at the next Senate meeting following a Presidential appointment.

C. The University Outreach Committee: The University Outreach Committee will be responsible for interacting with and representing outreach campuses. University Outreach is also responsible for reaching out to all students, regardless of location, through activities and events. The University Outreach Committee shall be responsible for upkeep of ASISU social media pages as well as overseeing the maintenance of ASISU Speaks on KISU. The Senate pro-tempore shall select, during caucus, one (1) member of the University Outreach Committee or two (2) co-chairs to serve as chair of the University Outreach Committee. The Outreach and Diversity Committee: The Outreach and Diversity Committee shall be responsible for interacting with and representing outreach campuses. The Outreach and Diversity Committee is also responsible for reaching out to all students, regardless of location, through activities and events. The Outreach and Diversity Committee shall be responsible for upkeep of ASISU social media pages as well as overseeing the maintenance of ASISU Speaks on KISU. Additionally, The Outreach and Diversity Committee shall promote and advocate diversity and inclusion at Idaho State University, which can include planning events, educational sessions, or projects that will aid diversity. The Senate pro-tempore shall select, during caucus, one (1) member of the Outreach and Diversity Committee or two (2) co-chairs to serve as chair of the Outreach and Diversity Committee.

D. The Diversity and Inclusion Committee: The Diversity and Inclusion Committee will be responsible for promoting and advocating diversity and inclusion at Idaho State University. The Diversity and Inclusion Committee is also responsible for planning events, educational sessions or projects that will aid diversity. The Diversity and Inclusion Committee will need to consult with the Director of Diversity and Inclusion on a weekly basis. The Senate pro-tempore shall select, during caucus, one (1) member of the Diversity and Inclusion Committee or two (2) co-chairs to serve as chair of the Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

E. The Service Committee: The Service Committee will be responsible for coordinating one (1) service project per semester, at the minimum. The Senate pro-tempore shall select, during caucus, one (1) member of the Service Committee or two (2) co-chairs to serve as chair of the Service Committee.

ASISU BYLAWS
ARTICLE I—STUDENT GOVERNMENT
Section 6—Reapportionment

Clause 1—The ASISU Senate’s Appointments and Review Rules and Appointment Committee shall reapportion the ASISU Senate every third year in the fall on the basis of full-time enrollment counting part-time enrollment at a 3:1 ratio (three (3) part-time students equal one (1) full-time student)

DATE OF FIRST INTRODUCTION: __February 1, 2017__

SENATE ACTION: __________________________ DATE: _______________________

ASISU PRESIDENT: ________________________ DATE: _______________________

ASISU SECRETARY: ________________________ DATE: _______________________