The bill updates the Bylaws to state that Outreach campuses are eligible to have a Vice-President to represent the campus if it reaches seven hundred registered full time students for two academic years.

ASISU BYLAWS
ARTICLE I—STUDENT GOVERNMENT
Section 8—ASISU on Outreach Campuses

Clause 2—Outreach campuses of Idaho State University may request an ASISU student officer team once the outreach campus maintains one thousand (1,000) seven hundred (700) registered students of Idaho State University for two academic years. The team will consist of a campus vice president and a Campus Programmer. The Campus vice president will be a member of the ASISU president’s Cabinet, and ex-officio member of the student Senate.

Clause 6—If the student enrollment at the outreach campus drops below one thousand (1,000) seven hundred (700) or two hundred and fifty (250) for two consecutive years, then that outreach program will be reviewed by the ASISU Senate for dissolution.
