GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER
1. Kiara Lopez-Montero and Cordell Lake- The University Performing Arts Club is putting on a fundraiser for Benny’s Pantry next week. There will be performances and a raffle. Each can counts as 1 raffle ticket.
2. Molly Draben and Matthew Leavitt- They are going to be throwing an election night party in November. The Political Science Club will be inviting the community, senators, students, faculty, etc. They are asking for a donation from ASISU. Idaho Falls Vice President Beck asked about their fundraisers. They noted that they applied for club funding this year.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

PRESIDENT’S REPORT
President Muir noted that the Ambush went really smoothly. She thanked everyone for their help. University Committees have been assigned. She asked the senators to contact the committees to find out meeting times. She will reassign senators as needed. “Can I Kiss You” is coming up.

CHAIR/COMMITTEE REPORTS
1. Senate Pro Tempore’s Chair Committee, Senator Kissoon- He met with all of the chairs.

MOTION CARRIED.

3. Rules Committee, Senator D’Amico- They did not meet this week. They will be meeting after Senate.

4. Appointments and Reviews Committee, Senator Palmer- The chair was not present.

5. Outreach Committee, Senator Walker- They finalized the float idea. They have an upcoming event at the Halloween Carnival in Idaho Falls. He will be sending out designs for the T-shirts for the senators to vote for. The top design will win. He noted that it is tough luck if someone voted for a different option. That’s what a democracy is for. They will meet to build the float. Senators should wear cultural outfits or Bengal gear on the day of the parade.

6. Communications Committee, Senator Day- They are still finalizing a meeting time. They are working on cultural events to celebrate holidays, and they want all cultural presidents to meet once per month.

7. Service Committee, Senator Kamman- She asked the senators to volunteer for Break for Breakfast.
