GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER
1. Noah Johnson- He reminded the senators that checklists are due tomorrow at 5:00pm. He reminded the senators to be in the office for their full office hour. He reminded them to copy him on any emails to clubs, etc. Senator Day asked if they should still email the clubs they were assigned yesterday, if they are going to be reassigned. Noah noted they should still contact them. Senator Kissoon noted the clubs were just assigned yesterday. Noah stated that they should still email their clubs if possible. There are some people with over $100 in deductions so far. He sent out a survey, and it is due October 5th.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE
1. Val Davids, Student Organizations Coordinator- Clubs are still being registered. Val thanked ASISU for being at events. Val introduced a new club, Love Your Melon Campus Crew. They raise awareness for childhood cancer. Over 700 chapters across the country. Alyssa Suggs and Rylee Wyman presented. For every cap sold, one is donated to a child in need. 50% of profits go back to the company and 50% go to childhood cancer research. They do not accept donations and do not get paid for their time with the club. They are having an upcoming event on October 20th called Love Your Melon Day. They hope to bring a child to a sporting event on campus. They have been tabling at Rendezvous. They are also working on events with Be the Match. MOVE TO APPROVE LOVE YOUR MELON CAMPUS CREW.
