GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER

Assistant Vice President Lowell Richards- Reported on the upcoming Student Global Leadership Program trip to China in May. Applications are now open and more information is available on the website, <https://www.isu.edu/lead/sglp>. If anyone is interested, talk to Lowell. This trip is a great opportunity to learn about leadership on a global scale. Seven people have already enrolled out of the 18 spots available for a scholarship. With the $1800 scholarship, the $3,895 cost is reduced to $2,005. A payment plan is possible.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

President Sargent- Follow up on the visit to New Day Products. President Sargent emailed Terry Frederickson, the CEO of New Day Products, and told him that the ASISU would love to tour the facility. Terry suggested the dates of September 11 and 12. Senator Jewkes stopped by their booth and Terry is very excited about the tour. The ASISU received 26 free tickets to the Utah State football game and all 26 tickets have been given out. Reminder of the Ambush on September 16. Assistance from all senators is mandatory but if there is a schedule conflict, email President Sargent. Encourage people to volunteer and help with the Ambush event. Senator Jewkes asked if the Ambush counts as service hours. President Sargent answered that it does not.
