ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

1. Val Davids-
 - a. The Unmanned Aerial vehicles (UAV Club) was presented as a club. Their purpose is to spread accurate knowledge about drones and unmanned systems with fun and engaging campus events. Kyle Janusik- There are rules and regulations not everyone is aware of so their goal is to educate. They hope to help the UAS class as well as involve electronic and robotic clubs. Together, they are planning events that will allow students to fly drones in a controlled environment. Senator D'Amico suggested they thoroughly advertise this club since there will be a high interest level. He also asked what type of controlled environment they would have. Kyle- They have permission to fly over a field close to the airport. Senator Sargeant asked what their ideas for funding are. Kyle- All club members will be responsible to provide their own drones until further funding is received. MOVE TO APPROVE UNMANNED ARIAL VEHICLES. Karki/Jewkes. Roll call.

- b. The Constitution of the Jazz Jam. Owen Flannagan- The purpose of this club is to create a group for the education and performance of jazz music on campus as well as in the community. They will hold jam sessions monthly, which will be open to students from ISU, high schools, other universities and the community. Senator Jewkes asked where jam sessions will be held. Owen- The sessions will be held at Garrison Hall and daytime events will take place at the SUB. Senator Jewkes asked if all participants are responsible to provide their own instruments. Owen- Only percussion and piano will be provided by the university. Senator Stickney asked if they reached out to Portneuf Valley Brewing since they have music sessions weekly and it could help with advertising. Owen- They have not reached out to them but it is a good idea. Senator Marshall asked if non-musical students are welcome to come watch the jam sessions Owen- All are welcome to attend and there is about a 300-room capacity. Vice President Ruiz noted that COHO does an open mic night but they could do an open jazz night anywhere on campus.
