- e. Senate Rules and Appointments Committee, Senator Marshall- Nothing to report.
f. Outreach and Diversity Committee, Senator Kisson- The trip to Boise for student government workshops was a success. 160 high school students came; many of whom also attended the Pocatello session. It was a great recruiting opportunity for ISU and was a great learning opportunity. The College of Arts and Letters was very grateful for ASISU's support. There is a similar opportunity on April 6 that senator Kisson would like to be a part of as well. His vision is that every Idaho student applies to ISU. Outreach and Diversity are working on the possibility of getting ISU gear for students.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

President Schmidt apologized for missing his report earlier and explained that he had to take care of Turner Day business. Secretary Livermont put scholarship memorandums in all of the senator's mail folders. He would like senators to assist in student scholarships this semester and reach out to those who are involved in the process. An email was sent to all of the club presidents about Turner Day informing them of the sign up process. Senator Kay- He ran into a problem while trying to sign up; he couldn't fill in the form. President Schmidt- A number of other students have also brought up that issue but it has been resolved. He encouraged senators to attend. The service event will take place at Reed Gym from 10:00am-1:00pm with paint, brushes, and coverings provided. ASISU will sponsor lunch from 12:00pm-1:00pm. He expects to be there for the majority of the time. Bus travel is still a good idea for basketball games but it was decided that ISU will hold off until the team makes it to the championship. Once that happens, Athletics will push the idea of a bus to take students to a basketball game. When that time comes, ASISU leaders will need to help people sign up. The cost for students to travel will be $10, which includes the bus ride, a ticket to the game, and food. He hopes that senators will be the first to fill the bus. International Night is coming up. If anyone would like to see President Schmidt dance, they are welcome to come.
