PRESIDENT'S REPORT

President Schmidt thanked everyone who helped make Turner Day successful. Since there were too many different shades of orange in Reed Gym, approximately fifty volunteers came to paint over some of the orange with grey. Additional improvements will be made as time goes on. Senators helping with International Night need to show up at 5:30pm and wear ISU clothing. There are some very qualified candidates remaining for the Athletic Director position and each of them have given excellent speeches. One of the candidates was previously the president of world college level baseball. Because of President Satterlee's influence and the great changes that are taking place at our University, many people who want to come to ISU. The Athletic Director search is narrowed down to three candidates and the selection will be finalized tomorrow. Next week, the Bookstore Committee will update ASISU during cabinet on how the ISU bookstore is doing. Senators are encouraged to come prepared with feedback. Basketball tournaments begin next week and President Schmidt hopes to see a big crowd there. Elections are going well and the candidates' speeches have been awesome. The Executive Ticket debate is tomorrow in the Pond Student Union at noon. President Schmidt recognized Secretary Livermont for her hard work in putting together ASISU gift baskets to donate to different organizations. He thanked her for her contributions to ASISU. The Chamber of Commerce was especially grateful for the donation and sent a thank you card.
