ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

Val Davids- American Sign Language Club, Pocatello was presented as a club. Years ago, it already existed in Pocatello but then moved to the Meridian campus. This year, about 40 students got together to once again form this club on the Pocatello campus. It will also hopefully be presented as an Idaho Falls club next week. Cassie Ashdown- The goal of this club is to do activities with the deaf community, have silent lunches, service projects, show movies with subtitles in the Bengal Theater twice a week, and provide other opportunities for students to use their sign language skills. Senator Marshall asked if non-American Sign Language students could join. Cassie- Yes they are. Vice President Sargeant asked if they have any fundraising plans at this point. Cassie- Not right now but they hope to bridge the gap between deaf people and non-deaf people within the community. Val- She will be meeting with them to go over new officer training, future fundraising, etc. MOVE TO APPROVE AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE, POCATELLO. Marshall/Kissoon. Roll call.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

President Schmidt- Thanks to everyone who signed thank you cards as well as for helping out with the Ambush. ASISU has yet to receive the rest of the money for the Ambush, but they are in the positive. Candidates for the ASISU positions will be approved at this meeting. Homecoming was awesome and the tailgates are going really well. The canned food drive contest against U of I is this weekend in correlation with the football game. President Schmidt has officially challenged Nicole Skinner, the Student Body Vice President of U of I, to the canned food drive so she will be flying here for that. President Schmidt will see if it is possible to donate a portion of the food to Benny's Pantry. Otherwise, it will go to the Idaho Food Bank. Senator Marshall asked if senators could bring money instead of cans. President Schmidt will allow senators to pay money but he will then go buy cans with that money and send pictures of the purchase. Senator Stock asked where they should bring the cans. President Schmidt- The Alumni Tailgate right before the game. Pocatello is excited about this competition and the football game against U of I. Tickets for the game are running out, and the dome is going to be packed.
