CPI Intern Evaluations FAQ

What?

The CPI Intern Evaluation form is intended to provide a structured process where an intern and their supervisor can sit down and discuss the intern's performance.

Why?

Reflection during and after an internship can provide the student intern an opportunity to grow both personally and professionally, gain confidence in their abilities, and work on their skillsets to help ensure future success.

When?

Evaluations can take place during or at the end of an internship. The CPI Office encourages evaluations to take place at least once a semester. CPI intern evaluations are not mandatory, but are highly encouraged.

Where can I find the learning outcomes?

Learning outcomes for every internship were provided to the CPI program on the CPI agreement form. If you do not have record of these outcomes please contact the CPI Office.

Who?

Once you have completed the evaluation, please provide a copy to the student for future reference. A copy should also be sent to the CPI Office
