What's Happening in CoSE

Administrative Assistant/Advisor Process Training Scheduled for July 28

Academic Affairs will be hosting a training for Administrative Assistants and Advisors that will go over changes that will be implemented for the 2022-2023 year. The training will cover:

- Annual faculty evaluation
- Course scheduling section attributes
- Undergraduate student petitions

Staff will receive a Zoom link for the training in an email from Academic Affairs.

CAES to Host Reception for Research Experience for Undergraduates Program

CAES is hosting a reception from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. on July 28 to celebrate the first cohort of the Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) – Advanced Manufacturing for a Sustainable Energy Future. The 10 students participating in the program this summer will present posters illustrating the projects they have worked on throughout the summer and conduct lightning talks on their work at the reception, which will take place at the CAES facility in Idaho Falls and is open to all members of the CAES community, including university students, faculty and researchers. Members of Idaho National Laboratory’s senior leadership team will be on hand, and hors d’oeuvres will be provided.

If you have questions about the event, email CAES Programmatic Lead Hillary Fishler or CAES Communications Lead Matt Evans.

Welcome to CoSE, Kirsten Broughton!

Monday, Kirsten Broughton joined the CoSE team as the Senior Accountant.

Kirsten previously worked in the Office of Sponsored Programs and Support on the Grants and Contracts Accounting team as a Senior Accountant. Before joining the staff at Idaho State, she earned her MBA in Finance and Master's in Accountancy from ISU.

Help Us Share Your Accomplishments!

Our College's outstanding faculty, staff, and students achieve many notable research and professional accomplishments. In addition, our departments regularly have newsworthy advancements. We want to make sure those stories are shared publicly. Here are a few ways you can provide a news tip to help get the word out:

Use this Story Submission Form to send your news tip to the Office of Marketing and Communications.

Send an email to Logan McDougall (loganmcdougall@isu.edu) with a brief description of the
You are always welcome to create a draft story, submit it via the Story Submission Form, or send it to Logan. The Office of Marketing and Communications and Logan will coordinate to get the story finalized and distributed to the media outlets/platforms that best tell the story.

From Around ISU

College of Business to Host Annual Festival of Trees

After a two-year hiatus, the ISU College of Business, in conjunction with Presenting Sponsor Lookout Credit Union, is reintroducing the Festival of Trees. The event is a tradition that captures the magic of the holidays while bringing the community together.

Graduate New Student Orientation Dates Set

The Graduate School will be hosting two Graduate New Student Orientations in August.

For more information, visit the Graduate School's website.

Course Material Cost Section Attributes for Spring Registration

In alignment with Idaho State Board of Education Policy III.U, beginning with the Spring 2023 semester, ISU’s course scheduling system, Banner, will provide the option of adding course material cost attributes to course sections. There will be three new optional attributes available that will indicate the “list price for the faculty-preferred format of all required instructional materials” as either $0, $1-$30, or $31-$50.

Get Ready for Moodle 4.0

Beginning August 10, Moodle ISU will upgrade to Moodle 4.0.

Starting in August, training opportunities will be available through the Instructional Technology Resource Center (ITRC), so be on the lookout for helpful webinars, handy how-to videos, and tutorials. If you would like a taste of the Moodle ISU 4.0 update, you can enroll in the self-paced Setting Sail with Moodle training course.

Legal Trainings Available for University Employees

The Office of the General Counsel has a strong commitment to proactive legal education and offers workshops and trainings to the ISU community.

Training topics include public employment issues, FERPA/HIPAA compliance, supervisor training, contract administration, public records retention, federal and state legal updates, and many others. We provide monthly trainings on a variety of topics as well as trainings by request. A list of all upcoming scheduled trainings is available on the Office of the General Counsel's website.

President Satterlee Named One of Idaho’s Most Influential Leaders

Idaho State University President Kevin Satterlee was named one of Idaho’s 50 Most Influential Business Leaders by the Idaho Business Review.

The list, which includes the state’s top leaders in private business, the nonprofit sector, and education, was compiled in June 2022 as part of the Idaho Business Review’s Power List publication.
