Resources for Help and Tutoring in Pocatello

Class and Lab Attendance. Each section of Math 1108 meets four times per week. (Three Lectures and One Lab) You will get a lot of help simply by going to your classes and labs and actively participating in the daily proceedings.

Instructor office hours. Instructors hold office hours to provide personal help to MATH 1108 students. During the first week of the semester, get your instructor’s contact information such as your instructor’s office location, phone number and email address in addition to your instructor’s office hours. When you need help, go to your instructor’s office hours. If you cannot attend your instructor’s office hours, then ask your instructor to set up an appointment with you at a different time.

Math Center. The Math Center is in Rendezvous 327 (just down the hall from Rendezvous 332), and it provides free tutoring to ISU students. The Math Center will open part time during the second week of the semester, but at the beginning of the third week of the semester, the Math Center will be open Mondays through Thursdays from 9 am – 7 pm and Fridays from 9 am – 2 pm. The Math Center is a walk-in facility, staffed by advanced undergraduate students, that provides help in freshman-level mathematics. Math 1108 students should be aware that some Math Center tutors may have limited or no experience with the HLS software.

Student Success Center. The Student Success Center in Rendezvous 323 (next to the Math Center) offers two courses that can be useful to MATH 1108 students. ACAD 1104, First Year Transition, is two credits, and it will meet twice a week for the entire semester. ACAD 1103, College Learning Strategies for Mathematics, is one credit, and it will meet twice a week for 8 weeks. Both courses are designed to help students develop habits and strategies for successful college study. For more information, visit the Student Success Center in Rendezvous 323 or call (208) 282-3662.

ADA students. The Mathematics and Statistics Department works with the Disability Services office to accommodate students with disabilities. Students who might require such an accommodation should make an appointment with Disability Services by calling (208) 282-3599 or by going to the Disability Services office in Rendezvous 125. It is the student’s responsibility to inform his or her instructor about any accommodations issued by Disability Services.

TRIO. You might be eligible to get extra help/tutoring with TRIO. See https://www.isu.edu/trio/programs/student-support-services/ or call (208) 282-3242 for details.
