Speech-Language Pathology Program Director, Idaho State University, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Pocatello, ID (2019-2020)
Associate Professor, Idaho State University, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Pocatello, ID (2017-Present)
Assistant Professor, Tenure-track, Idaho State University, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Pocatello, ID (2012-2017)
Assistant Professor, Tenure-track, East Carolina University, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Greenville, NC (2010-2012)
Project Coordinator II (Follow-up work on NIDCD R01 funded research; Infant Vocalizations and the Foundations for Speech), The University of Memphis, School of Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology, Memphis, TN (2009-2010)
Speech-Language Pathologist for Memphis City School District, Invo HealthCare Associates, Inc., Doylestown, PA (2006-2010)
Graduate Research Assistant, the University of Memphis, School of Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology, Memphis, TN (2003-2008)

Education

Access Learning Academy, Training to become a Certified Academic Language Therapist (2021-present)
Academic Language Therapists provide diagnostic, explicit, systematic, Multisensory Structured Language intervention that builds a high degree of accuracy, knowledge, and independence for students with written-language disorders, including dyslexia. Per the International Dyslexia Association, training to become a Certified Academic Language Therapist (CALT) requires, among other things, 200 classroom hours with a Qualified Instructor (QI) of CALTs, 700 clinical practicum hours, and sitting for/passing a national examination.

Doctor of Philosophy, Speech-Language Pathology, University of Memphis, School of Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology (May, 2009)

Dissertation, The Emergence of Phonological Categories in Human Infancy: A
Methodological Exploration

Major Professor, Dr. D. Kimbrough Oller

Focus Area, Child Phonology

Collateral Area, Psycholinguistics and Bilingualism

Master of Science, Communication Disorders, Boston University, Sargent College of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences (May, 2003)

Bachelor of Art, Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, Iona College, School of Arts and Sciences,
Graduate Magna cum Laude (May, 2001)

Membership, Certification, and Licensure

Academic Language Therapist/Dyslexia Specialist in Training, Access Learning Academy (2021-Present)

International Dyslexia Association, Member (2021-Present)
