DIDACTIC PROGRAM IN DIETETICS (DPD)
APPLICATION AND ADMISSION

Admission Requirements:

1. GPA of 3.0 or above on a 4.0 scale in required courses.
2. Completion of required courses listed under pre-dietetics with no course grade lower than a C in any of the following classes: CHEM 1101, 1102, 1103; BIOL 1101; BIOS 2221, 221L, 3301, 3302; ENG 1101, 1102; and NTD 1104, 2204, 2239, NTD 2205 has replaced NTD 1104 and 2204 as of Spring 2020. See General Bulletin for course requirements (pre-dietetics). Fulfillment of specific requirements does not ensure admission into the program.
3. Completion of ISU general education requirements is strongly suggested prior to applying and must be completed before graduation.

Application Process:

Students may only apply to the professional component of the DPD in the spring semester once requirements are met. Applicants must complete the DPD application, write a letter of application, submit transcripts of all colleges and universities attended, and include an application fee of $25. Applications will not be reviewed until all application materials have been received. The application deadline is February 15th; as this is a weekend, applications will be accepted through February 18, 2020.

Application should include the following:

1. A completed DPD application form (enclosed).
2. Official transcripts from all colleges and universities other than Idaho State University.
3. A typed letter of application stating reasons for selecting dietetics as a career and professional goals.
4. A non-refundable application fee of $25.00 (make check payable to the Dietetic Programs).
5. Put all materials together in one envelope and send to the address below.

NOTE: Students accepted into the dietetics program must have started the hepatitis B series shots and TB screening. This can be done by the Student Health Center, a private physician, or a clinic.

Accepted students must submit proof of updated and acceptable MMR Vaccines (Mumps, Measles, and Rubella), Varicella (Chicken pox), and health insurance.
