FIRST ANNUAL ALUMNI RENDEZVOUS
Participants include Department of Family Medicine Graduates, Residents of all Disciplines, Faculty & Preceptors

LIVE
Friday, June 24, 2022
11:00 am to 3:00 pm (Lunch provided)
3:00 pm to 4:00 pm Reception & Networking
Stephens Performing Arts Center in Pocatello
(Virtual Option is Available)

Presentations Include:

• "The Unique Attributes of a Department of Family Medicine Housed in a State University" - Jonathan Cree, MD
• "Caring for Chronic Hepatitis in Primary Care" - Neil Ragan, MD & Anushka Burde, PharmD
• "Being Prepared for Medical Emergencies on the Trail" - AJ Weinhold, MD
• "Clinical Conundrums in Family Medicine: The Role of Medicinal Herbs" - Jean Bokelmann, MD

Sponsors include the Idaho State University Department of Family Medicine, the Idaho Association of Family Physicians, and the Health Resources & Services Administration

Accreditation – Approval of this activity is pending for up to 4 CME prescribed credits by the American Academy of Family Physicians. It is the policy of IAFP’s education committee to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its sponsored educational programs.