Direct Pay Form Process

The Direct Pay Form can be used to pay approved expenditures which do not require a university purchase order and when the university P-Card is not accepted by the vendor. Departments should never use a Direct Pay Form in place of a purchase order, just because it is easier or because they have not followed proper procedures.

Approved Expenditures

The Direct Pay Form can be used, but is not required, for the following types of payments. If a department wishes they can always use a purchase order or if policy allows a p-card.

1. Payment to Speakers, Entertainers and Artists where total payment is $3000 or less.
2. Reimbursement to Employees for incidental expenses
3. Participant Support Costs
4. Awards or Stipends to students
5. Memberships and Organizational Dues
6. Subscription (except maintenance subscription)
7. Payment of Professional Licenses/Fees
8. One time payments for services $500 or less.
9. Refill of Postage Meter
10. Federal Express Charges
11. Refunds
12. Insurance Premiums
13. Petty Cash/Change Fund Reimbursements
14. Employee Conference Registration within work location(no travel involved)
15. Moving Expenses
