College of Arts and Letters
FY2022 Budget Overview

Presented by Kandi Turley-Ames
April 6, 2021
Overview

• Majority of budget reductions identified during last year’s budget cycle will be realized in FY22

• Focusing on a multi-year approach to examine existing resources and aligning with strategic priorities moving forward
Overview (cont’d)

• Permanently funding IT Operations & Support Sr. Tech position and associated operating costs

• Establishing a new tenure-track line in Spanish
  ○ Leveraging the Online MA Spanish program to support faculty lines and programming

• Converting a current Assistant Lecturer of cello to a tenure-track line

• Fully funding the Assistant Professor of Music and ISCS Concertmaster position

• Continued support of bi-campus instruction expenses

• Continued investment of ROAR 1199
Strategic Alignment

- Efficiency and effectiveness
  - IT Operations & Support
- Enrollment, Recruitment, Retention
  - Tenure track lines in Spanish, Music
  - MA Spanish online program fee funding
  - ROAR 1199
  - Supporting bicampus instruction and outreach
- Community relationships, ISU identity and culture
  - Idaho State Civic Symphony
Strategic Investment Requests: Existing Fund Balances

1. Gala Scholarships - support students in the arts given fewer opportunities during the academic year for fundraising
2. Theatre Production - funding required to re-establish audience and community support following the pandemic
3. Debate Team - enhance student experience and ISU brand by supporting student involvement in debate tournaments in a year when activity fees have declined
4. Ifft Communication Lab - update computing lab for COMM 1101, GEM objective 2
5. Business and Professional Communication - enhance student learning and engagement using technology mediated tools
6. Remedial English/Composition - implement the Write Class as a placement tool for English placement and continued professional development needed for composition instruction
Discussion