

Tuition and Fee Refund Appeal

Tuition and Fees Refund Appeal Policy Information

Policy Statement:

ISU will review a request for tuition and fee refund provided the student meets the requirements of the University's policy on Tuition and Fees Appeals and submits supporting documentation on official letterhead. Appeals that do not represent a sound basis for reimbursement will be denied. Appeals must be submitted no later than 6 months after the withdrawal date.

Submitting an Appeal:

- Students must officially withdraw from courses before their appeal will be considered.
- Appeal documents are accepted at the Office of Finance and Business Affairs, Administration Building, 2nd floor, or can be mailed to ISU, Finance and Business Affairs, Mail Stop 8219, Pocatello, Idaho 83209, or can be emailed to stufees@isu.edu.
- For other questions on the Tuition and Fees Refund Appeal process, please contact Finance and Business Affairs at 208.282.4207

Appeal Process:

All appeals are referred to the Tuition and Fees Refund Appeal Committee. This committee is comprised of representatives from the Office of Finance and Business Affairs, Student Affairs, College of Technology, and Academic Affairs. Appeals are reviewed on a monthly basis. Depending upon the complexity of the appeal and receipt of all supporting documentation, the processing time may vary from six to eight weeks.

- Appeals are approved when a majority of the committee decides in favor of the request.
- Committee decisions are final.

Please be advised that filing a tuition appeal does not exempt your account from the assessment of collection and/or financial penalties when applicable. Please pay tuition and fees when due. Late fees and collection fees are not appealable charges.

Instructions/Checklist

- Review the acceptable and unacceptable list of reasons to request a refund.
- Consider why an exception to the published policy is justified for your situation. Idaho State University has published policies on fees, charges, and refunds. This information is available from the Finance and Business Affairs website at www.isu.edu/financeadmin. Requests that simply disagree with the policy are not considered.
- Gather supporting documentation to submit with your appeal. For example, a statement from an advisor is needed when an advising error is the basis of the request; a statement from a medical professional on letterhead and including applicable dates is required when based on a medical condition. Letter explaining your situation with dates and events.
Unofficial Transcript.

Submit the completed form and documentation to the Tuition and Fees Refund Appeal Committee. If the appeal committee needs additional information from you, a request will be made to the EMAIL address you have provided below.

The decision of the committee is final. The review process may take 4 to 6 weeks due to the research conducted on each request submitted. A written decision will be sent to the MAILING address listed on this form.

Be sure to attach all documentation such as letters from doctors, hospital statements, copy of incorrect or misleading University publication, etc. you feel may support your assertions.
