

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE PETITION TO APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID AS AN INDEPENDENT STUDENT

When you completed and submitted your 2021-2022 Free Application For Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) your answers to the dependency status questions identified you as a dependent student. This means you were required to provide parental information. You indicated that you have an unusual circumstance and were unable to provide parental information.

Federal law specifies that to the extent your family is able, they are primarily responsible for paying for your college expenses. To determine how much your family can afford to pay toward your college expenses, we must collect your financial information and your parents' financial information.

However, Federal law allows for some exceptions, if you have an unusual circumstance. The following are examples of some unusual circumstances where you may submit your FAFSA without providing parental information:

- ◆ Your parents are incarcerated; or
- ◆ You have left home due to an abusive family environment; or
- ◆ You have circumstances which have resulted in family estrangement; or
- ◆ You do not know where your parents are and are unable to contact them (and you have not been adopted).

But not all situations are considered an unusual circumstance. The following are situations that would not be considered an unusual circumstance:

- ◆ Your parents do not want to provide their information on your FAFSA; or
- ◆ Your parents refuse to contribute to your college expenses; or
- ◆ Your parents do not claim you as a dependent on their income taxes; or
- ◆ You do not live with your parents.

If you have an unusual circumstance that would allow you to submit your FAFSA without parental information, please complete and submit the attached form for a decision.

The decision for you to be considered as an independent student for the purpose of awarding Federal Financial Aid is made on a case by case basis by a committee in the Office of Financial Aid. The decision of the Office of Financial Aid is final and cannot be appealed to Federal Student Aid.

FORM INDPET - IDAHO STATE UNIVERSITY
PETITION to APPLY for FINANCIAL AID as an INDEPENDENT STUDENT

21-22

INDPET-22

Financial Aid regulations state the family has primary responsibility for meeting the educational costs of students. Dependent students are required by law to provide parental information and signature(s) to be considered for financial aid. Occasionally, due to unusual circumstances which result in family estrangement, students should not be considered as dependent. Return completed for with applicable attachments to:
