Federal Student Aid requires contributors on a FAFSA application to provide consent and approval to retrieve and disclose their federal tax information. One or more contributors on your FAFSA application have not yet provided this consent.

A contributor is anyone (you, your spouse, your biological or adoptive parent, or your parent's spouse) who is required to provide information on the FAFSA form, sign the FAFSA form, and provide consent and approval to have their federal tax information transferred directly from the IRS into the form.

You and/or your contributor(s) will need to log into StudentAid.gov, select your FAFSA application from their dashboard, and select "Make a Correction" to provide the missing consent and approval. The FAFSA will need to be signed and resubmitted. You are ineligible for federal student aid until this consent and approval is provided.
