9. University Policy: Guest Speaker agrees to follow all university policies and instructions while on ISU property. If ISU, in its sole determination, believes the Guest Speaker or Guest Speaker's representatives appear to be under the influence of alcoholic beverages or other controlled substances, or exhibit behavior, conduct, or acts that would reflect negatively upon ISU, or are socially unacceptable as determined by ISU, then ISU shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, cancel the performance, and have the offender(s) removed from the premises with no liability whatsoever.

In the event failure to perform is beyond Guest Speaker's control, Guest Speaker shall return any fee or deposit already paid by ISU, but shall not be liable for any additional costs, charges, or expenses.

ISU may cancel Guest Speaker from the event upon written notice if Guest Speaker engages in any conduct that a reasonable person would believe brings the Guest Speaker into general public disrepute, contempt, scandal or ridicule, or that shocks, insults or offends the public and which a reasonable person would believe would have the effect of reflecting unfavorably upon the Guest Speaker's or ISU's reputation if the event continues. ISU's decision to terminate hereunder must be exercised, if at all, not later than 90 days after the facts giving rise to such right are brought to ISU's attention, but in no event later than the event date. Upon termination under this clause, Guest Speaker will not be entitled to any compensation and will return or reimburse any funds already paid.

12. Force Majeure: Neither party is responsible for failure to fulfill its obligations due to causes beyond its reasonable control that make the Agreement impossible, impracticable, or frustrate the purpose of the contract, including but not limited to: acts of God; government or court orders, guidelines, regulations, or actions related to communicable diseases, epidemics, pandemics, or other dangers to public health; fires; floods; riots; terrorist acts; or any other causes, directly or indirectly beyond the reasonable control of the nonperforming party, so long as such party uses its best efforts to remedy such failure or delays if reasonable to do so. A party affected by a force majeure condition shall provide written notice to the other party within a reasonable time of the onset of the condition.

13. Entire Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties as to performance of the services, and replaces and supersedes any other agreements, correspondence or other discussion between the parties, whether or not any of the foregoing have been reduced to writing. No modification of this Agreement is effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. The parties may agree to attach a contract rider to this Agreement with additional details of the Services, however any legal terms added in the rider are void unless specifically agreed upon by ISU.

14. Miscellaneous: This Agreement shall be governed by and construed exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of Idaho.
