

Idaho State University

Study Locally. Think Globally.

Interested in exploring the world? Want to work for the State Department, intelligence services, or an international organization? Want to be an advocate for global issues?

When you enroll with Peace Corps Prep, your global studies classes will count toward the certificate requirements. No extra work, time, or costs required!

Become fluent in a foreign language, develop intercultural skills, and gain leadership and professional skills with the Peace Corps Prep Certificate.

Please contact Colin Johnson for more information
(208) 282-2540 | colinjohnson@isu.edu

Integrate coursework with hands-on experiences and professional development to launch your career in one of these professional fields:

1. Education
2. Health
3. Environment
4. Youth and Development
5. Community Economics
6. Development

Graduate with relevant work experience.

Get ready for a global career.

Gain a competitive edge when applying for the Peace Corps.

Demonstrate your leadership skills through volunteer engagement.