

I know what is expected of me at work.

I have the materials and equipment I need to do my job.

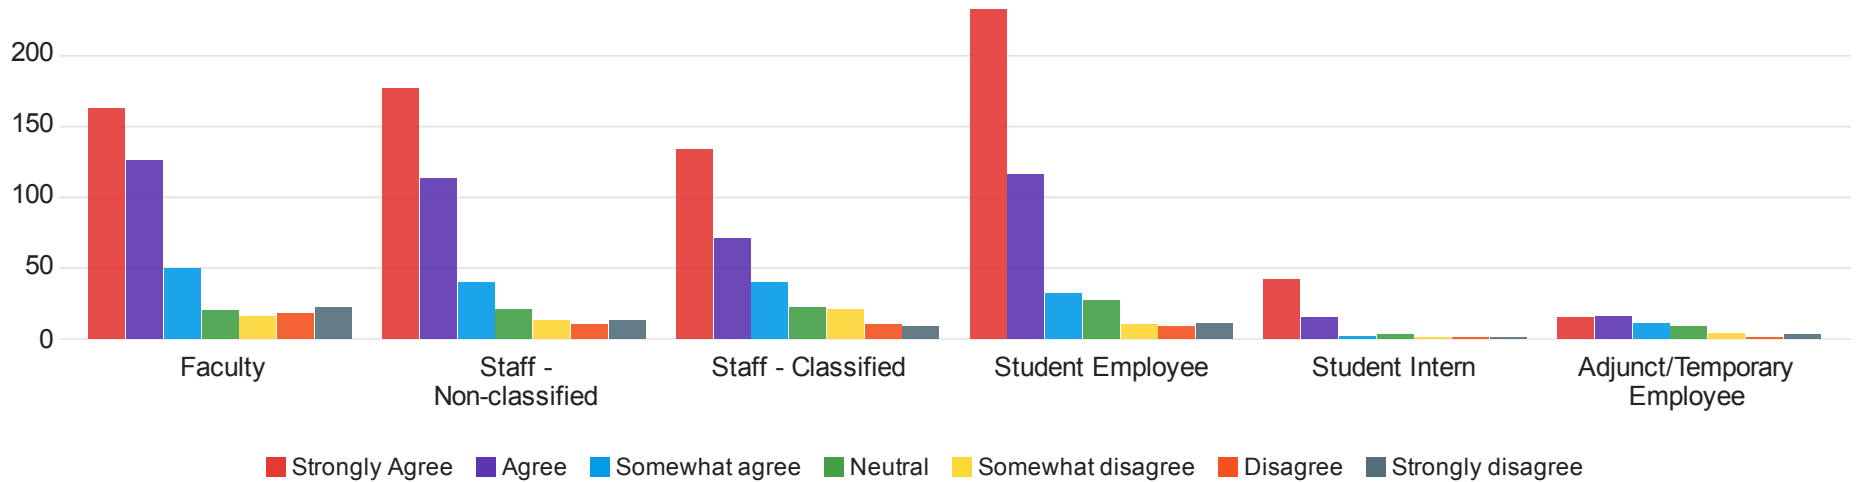

At work, I have the opportunity to do what I do best every day.

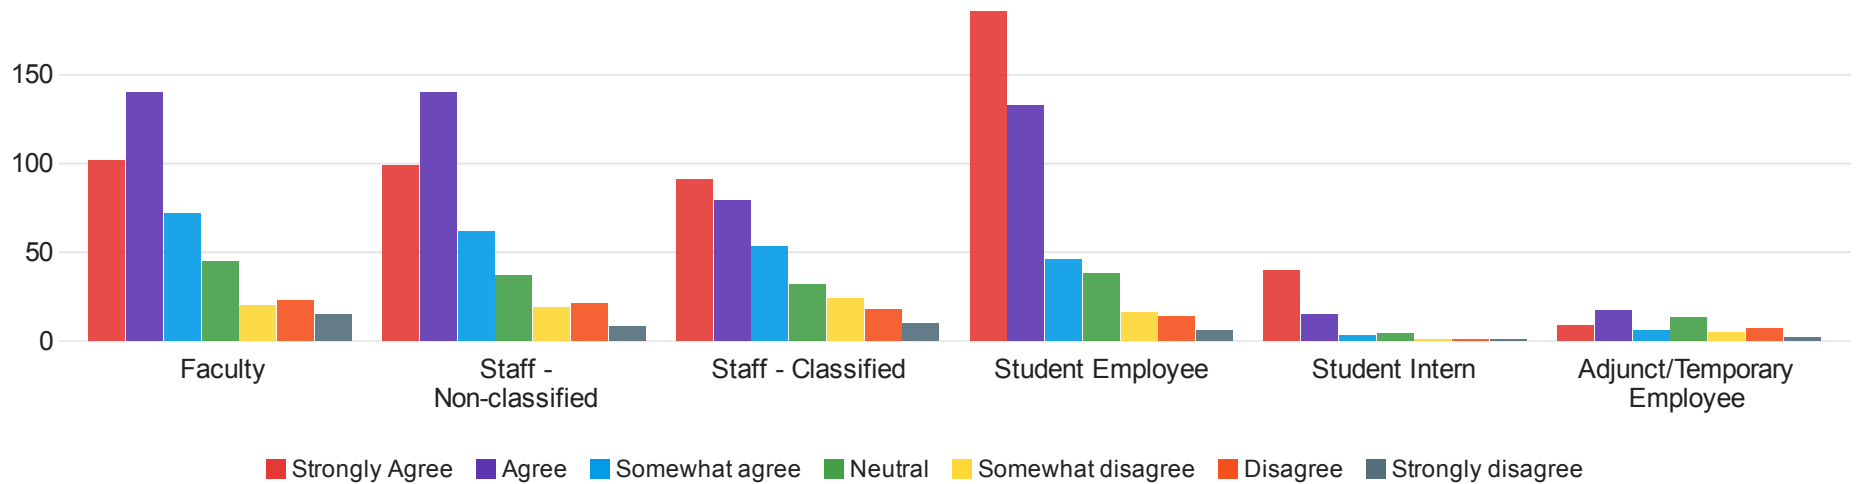

I regularly receive recognition or praise for doing good work.

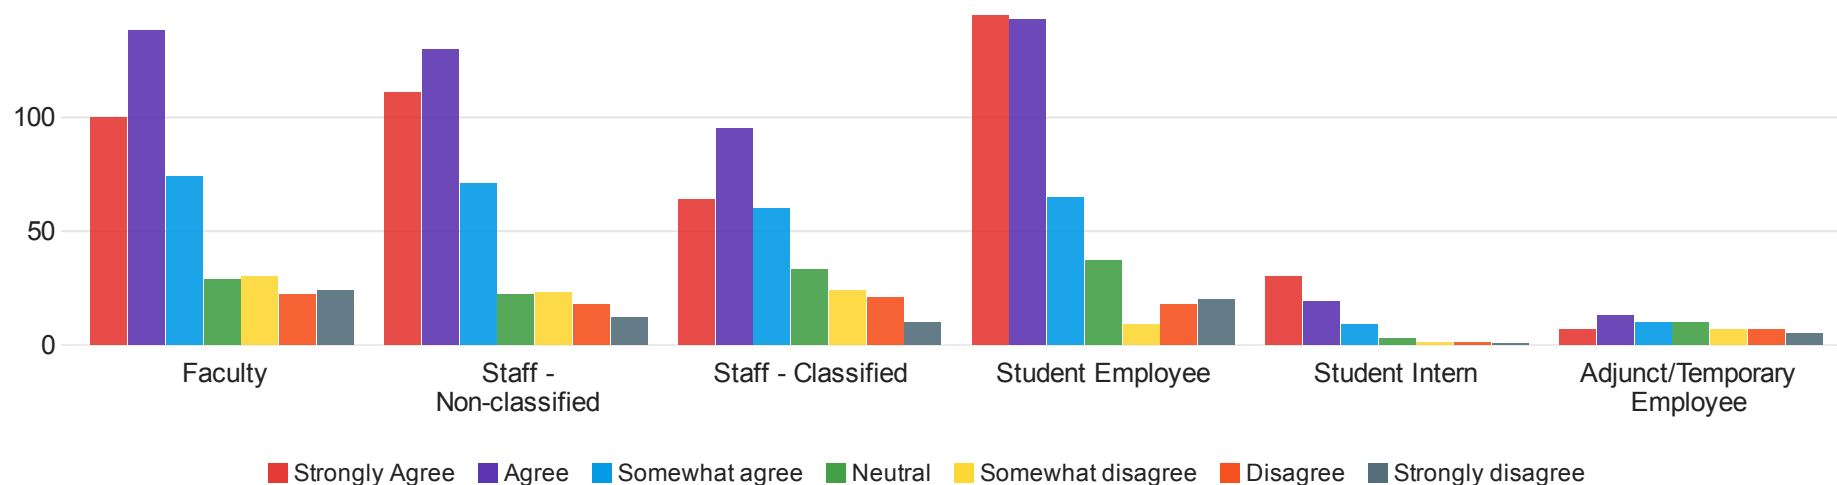

My supervisor, or someone at work, seems to care about me as a person.

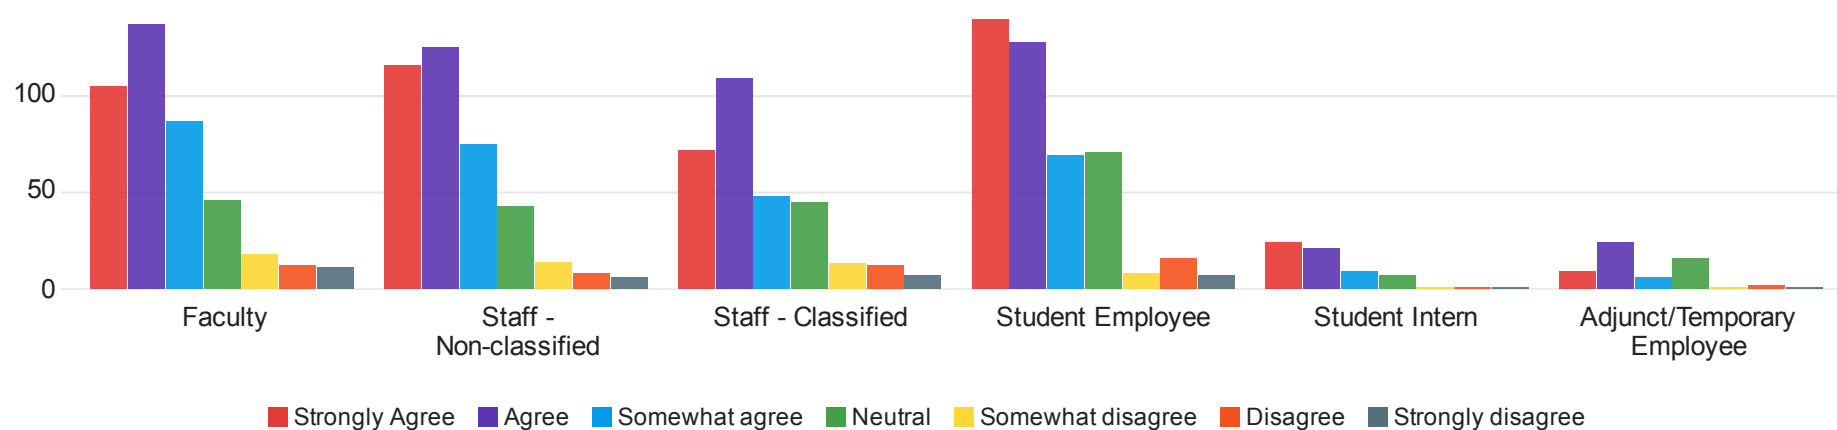

There is someone at work who encourages my development.

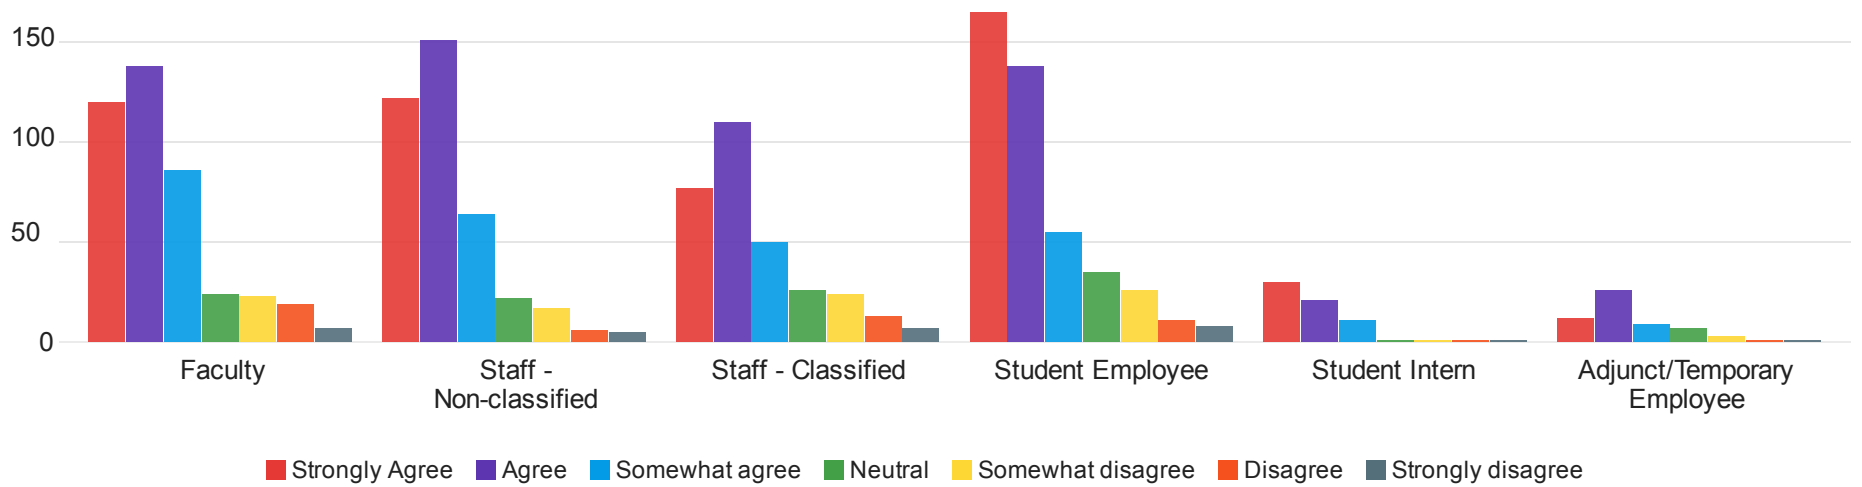

At work, my opinion seems to count.

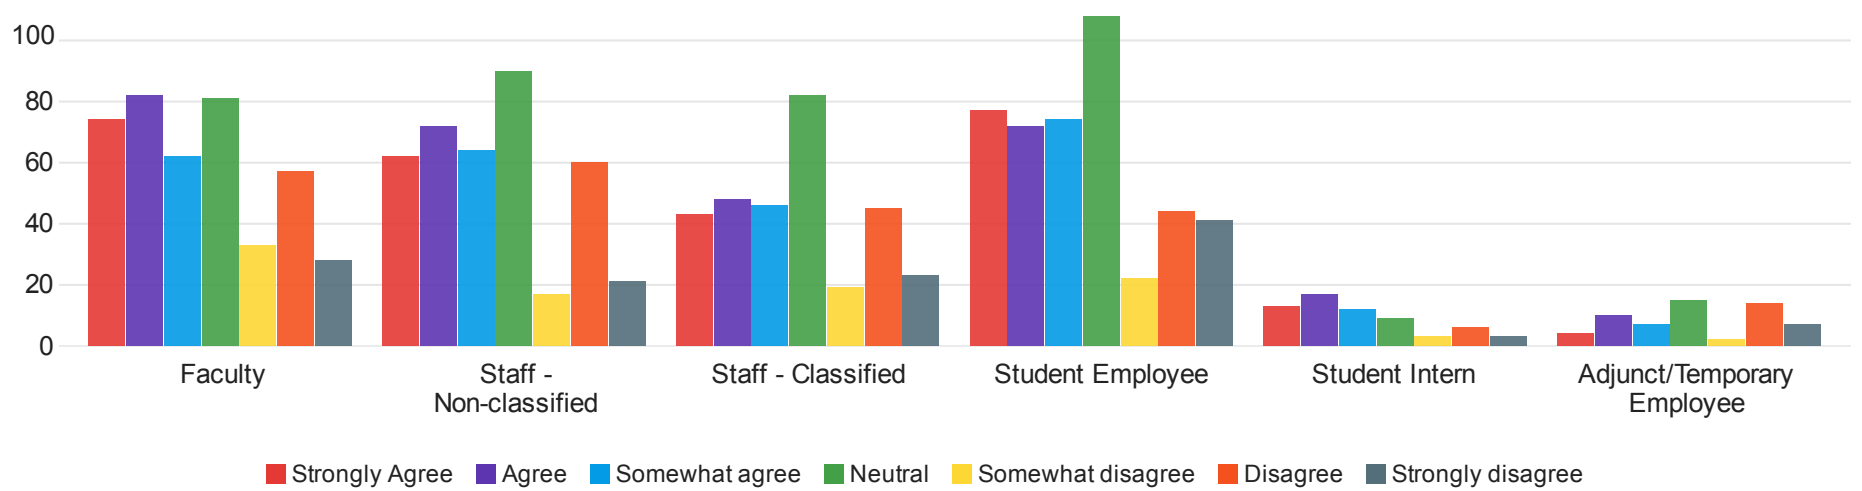

The mission or purpose of Idaho State University makes me feel that my job is important.

My associates or fellow employees are committed to doing quality work.

I have a best friend at work.

In the last six months, someone has talked to me about my progress.

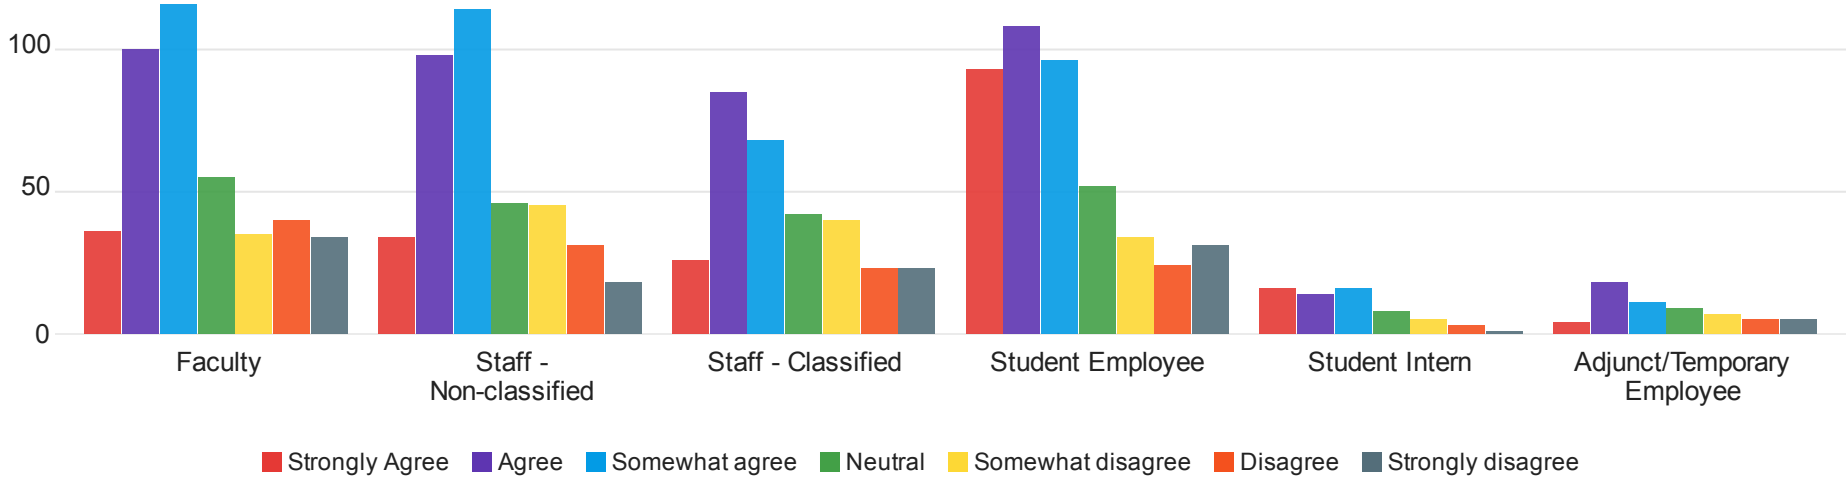

This last year, I have had the opportunity at work to learn and grow.

Knowledge and information sharing is practiced between my co-workers and me.

I receive clear information about changes being made within Idaho State University.

I receive clear information about changes being made within my college or area.

I have confidence in the leadership and direction provided by Senior Administration.

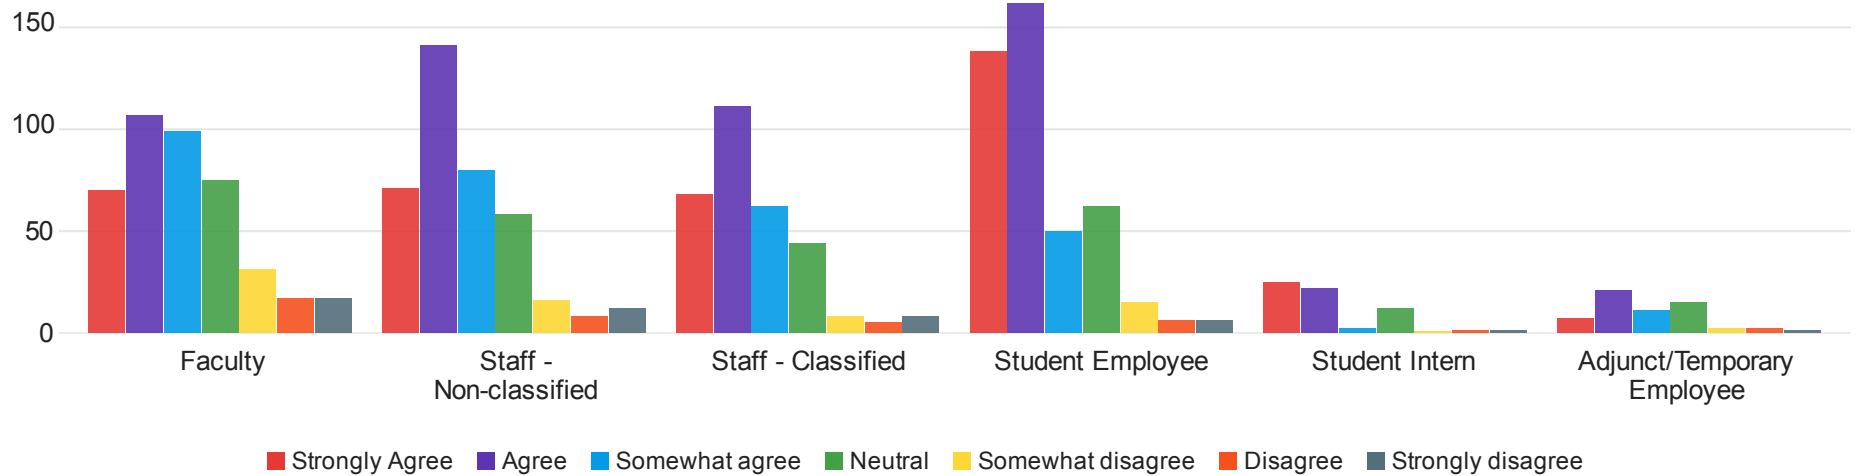

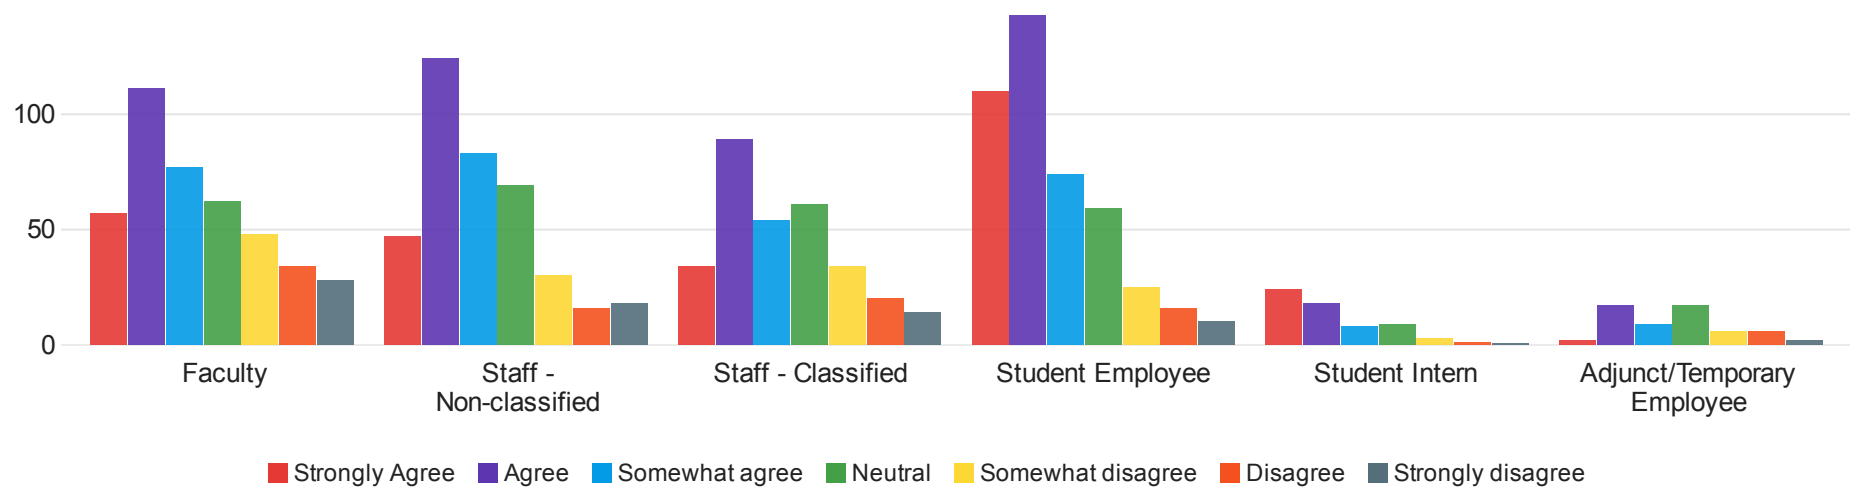

My unique attributes, traits, characteristics, skills, experience and background are valued at work.

The University and its leadership are committed to diversity.

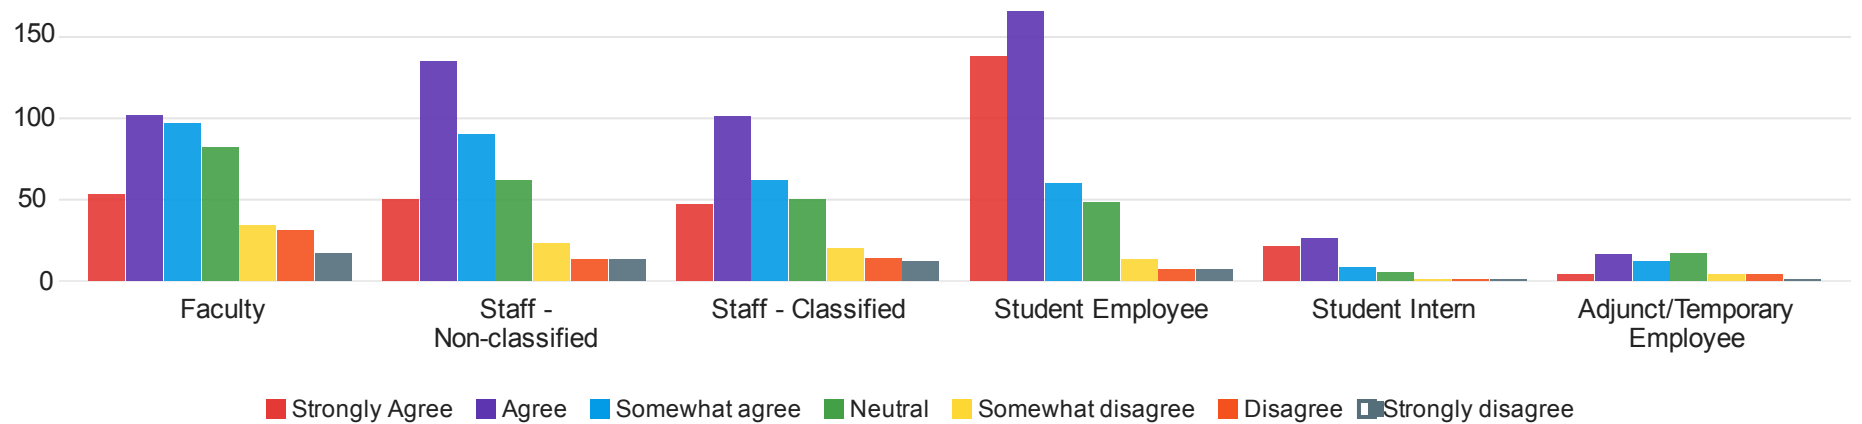

I can identify people similar to myself in leadership positions at the University.

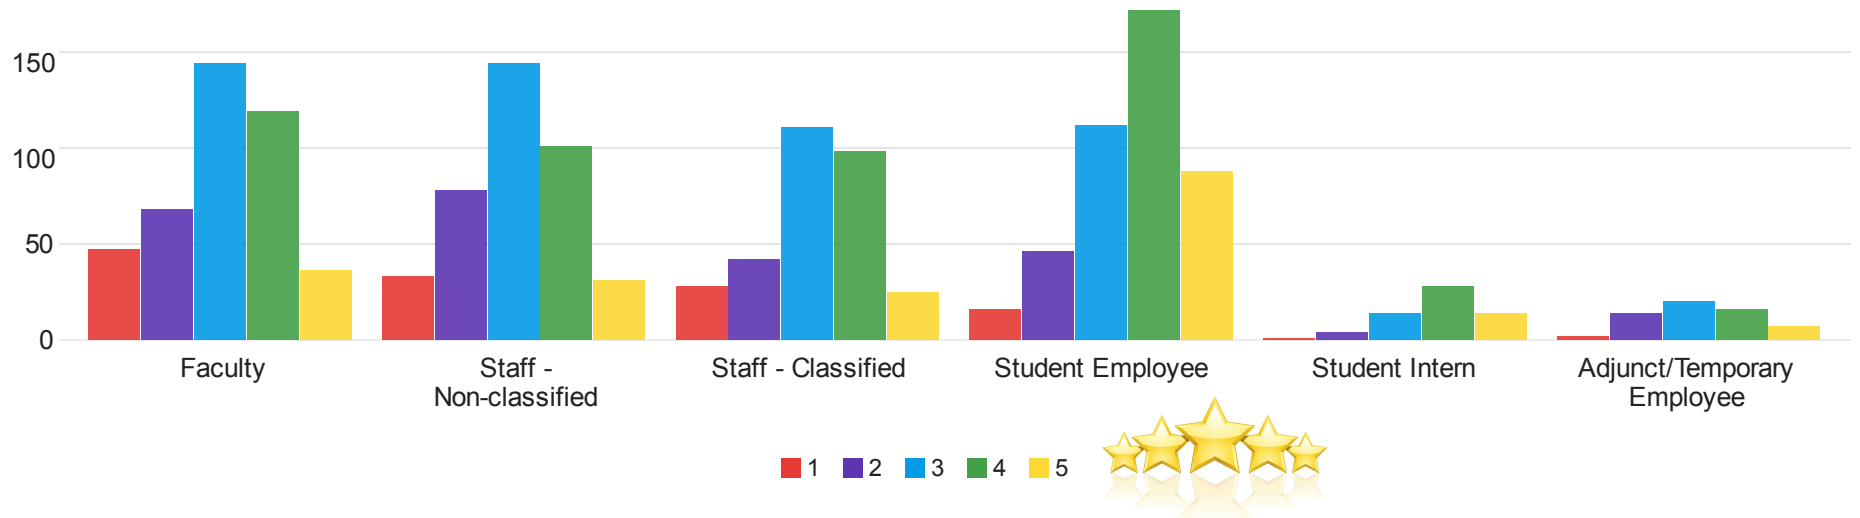

In my unit, offensive behavior (sexual harassment, discrimination, insensitive remarks, etc.) is not tolerated.

Idaho State University has an inclusive work environment where staff diversity at all levels is valued and encouraged.

How would you rate overall internal communication at Idaho State University?

Overall, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with Idaho State University as your current employer?

Have you faced or witnessed prejudice or discrimination in your work setting?

I am treated fairly at Idaho State University without regard to my age, race, ethnic background, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

How proud are you to work at Idaho State University?

