

discover OPPORTUNITY

IN SEARCH OF: TRAINING DIRECTOR CLINICAL PSYCHOPHARMACOLOGY

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Live classroom instruction
- Interdisciplinary curriculum and faculty
- Interprofessional education and practice
- Strong biomedical focus

LOCATION HIGHLIGHTS

- State-of-the-art anatomy and physiology labs
- Beautiful Treasure Valley locale
- Top 50 Best Places to Live in America (MONEY, 2017)

Idaho State UNIVERSITY

Kasiska Division of Health Sciences

Complete Job Description at:

isu.csod.com/ats/careersite/JobDetails.aspx?id=649

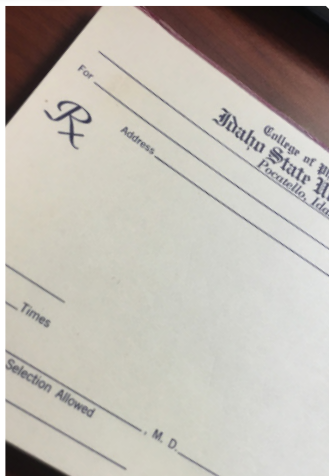

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide leadership and oversee development of the MSCP program
- Develop and coordinate didactic and experiential curriculum, including establishing clinical training sites and providing preceptor development as needed
- Monitor and evaluate student academic progress
- Deliver instruction for selected clinical topics
- Coordinate coverage of other lecturers in the program
- Evaluate support staff
- Administer program budget

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- PhD in Clinical Psychology from an accredited program OR either an MD or DO degree with specialty in psychiatry from an accredited medical school and residency program OR a DNP trained as a psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner
- Licensed to practice in Idaho (out-of-state candidates must be eligible to obtain appropriate Idaho license within 6 months of hire date)
- Excellent oral and written communication skills in English

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- PhD in Clinical Psychology
- MS in Clinical Psychopharmacology from an accredited program
- Licensed in Idaho as a prescribing psychologist
- Licensed in different state as a prescribing psychologist
- Prior experience with an established MSCP program
- Prior experience teaching, supervising, and/or training students or residents in academic and/or clinical settings.
- Demonstrated success in working with culturally and linguistically diverse population