

POLs 4445 Jurisprudence - Public Law	Goal/Objective	Outcomes Reflecting Goal	Assignments Demonstrating Achieving Outcome
	Knowledge of the nature, source, and theories of law.	Identify and analyze the foundations of law and understand how the principles and theories of law compare to those of politics.	Exam: respond to essay questions on different legal theories and the foundation of law.
	Knowledge of the role of law in modern society.	Identify and analyze the origins of law in society and understand the evolution of its role over time.	Writing assignment: choose one legal system and describe the role of law in that society over the past century, comparing the principles and public expectations of law to those of politics.
	Knowledge of the application of legal philosophy to the political system.	Identify and analyze different legal philosophies and understand how controversy over legal philosophy has shaped the political system.	Exam: respond to essay questions on different legal philosophies and their relative merits, and identify situations in which law has shaped political outcomes.