

POLS 4467 State and Local Administration	Goal/Objective	Outcomes Reflecting Goal	Assignments Demonstrating Achieving Outcome
- Public Administration	Understand development and influences of state and local government.	Gain an understanding of the development and influences of state and local government.	Write a paper addressing the development and mission of a state bureaucratic organization.
	Understand institutions of government and their relationships with citizens and other institutions.	Mastery of knowledge of state and local institutions.	Essay exam covering concepts such as intergovernmental relations, political culture, state legislatures, governors, and bureaucracies.
	Understand issues of management in state and local government.	Evidence of understanding how government serves citizens.	Read and discuss articles from journals in the field of public administration. These articles cover topics such as characteristics of individuals wanting to work for government, diversity, developing a budget, organizational structure that is responsive to citizens, and accountability to citizens. Essay exam on above mentioned topics.