International Travel - Export Control Compliance Certification

Acceptance of this Export Control Compliance Certification confirms that an ISU international traveler agrees to the following statements.

Sanctioned Countries - The ISU traveler agrees to NOT conduct the following activities with persons and organizations from countries sanctioned by the U.S. government. The most extensively sanctioned countries include Cuba, Iran, North Korea, and Syria. A current and complete list of sanctions may be found at https://ofac.treasury.gov/.

- Travel to sanctioned countries.
- Export materials to sanctioned countries.
- Collaborate with foreign persons from sanctioned countries
- Form agreements with foreign persons or organizations from sanctioned countries.
- Share research or technology with persons from sanctioned countries.

Material Exports – The ISU international traveler agrees NOT to hand carry or arrange for the shipment of export-controlled material, not otherwise exempt/excluded, unless an export license is obtained from the regulating U.S. government agency. Export-controlled material includes the following.

- Items with potential military value listed in the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) found at 22 CFR parts 120-130.
- Items listed in the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) as requiring an export license to ship. These regulations are found at 15 CFR parts 730-744.
- Electronic data storage devices containing export-controlled information. Electronic data storage devices include laptops, tablets, and cell phones.
- Items containing technology that foreign persons are prohibited from visually inspecting.

Information Sharing (“Deemed Exports”) – The ISU international traveler agrees NOT to share export-controlled information, not otherwise exempt/excluded, with foreign persons and organizations. Export controlled information includes the following.

- Research funded by a sponsor that restricts publication of the research.
- Research funded by a sponsor that prohibits participation by foreign persons.

Contact the ISU Export Control Office at orexpctr@isu.edu or (208) 282-2618 for questions regarding export control requirements.