How to Prepare for and Register for the TEAS Exam

There are three options for taking the TEAS exam: ISU Pocatello/Idaho Falls, ISU Meridian, or Online. Follow the steps below to create your ATI account, explore study materials, and register for your exam.

Step 1: Create Your ATI Account

Before scheduling your TEAS exam, you will need to create an account through ATI. This is required whether you take your exam online or at an ISU testing center ***

1. Visit ATI Testing https://atitesting.com/
2. Select Create Account or Sign In if you already have an account.
3. Follow the prompts to enter your personal information and create your login credentials.
4. Make sure your name and information are entered correctly, as this account will be used to access your TEAS exam and scores.
5. Once your account is created, log in to access TEAS registration and preparation materials.

Step 2: Explore TEAS Study Materials

I strongly recommend getting study materials to help you prepare for the exam. There are many options available to you. Below are ones that have been recommended by students, but you are welcome to use any material of your choice

ATI Study Matieral
1. Visit ATI Testing https://atitesting.com/ and log in to your account.
2. Select TEAS
3. Select Prep for TEAS
4. Review the available study options.
    - ATI TEAS Basic Package (includes practice exams) or ATI TEAS Study Guide are the most suggested options

Mometrix
1. Visit https://www.mometrix.com/products.htm?type=Study%20Guides in the search bar type: TEAS (or Google mometrix used to save some money
2. Suggested to take at least 1 full-length practice exam prior to actual test
    a. For best test result after taking the practice exam, focus your study time on TEAS sections where your scores are below 80%

Step 3: Choose Where You Want to Take the TEAS Exam

You have three options for testing. Follow the instructions for your preferred location.

Option 1: ISU Pocatello / Idaho Falls

1. Visit the ISU Testing Center website https://www.isu.edu/testingcenter/
2. Select TEAS
3. Follow the registration instructions provided on the page.
4. Select your preferred campus location (Pocatello or Idaho Falls).
5. Follow any additional instructions specific to your selected campus.

Option 2: ISU Meridian

1. Visit the ISU Meridian Testing Services website https://www.isu.edu/meridian/testing-services/
2. Locate Meridian Academic Testing Services
    - Important: Do NOT select Prometric Test Center.
3. Under All Other Exams read all the information in the blue/gray box on the left side of the page.
4. Follow the instructions for selecting the correct time slot for the TEAS exam.
5. Review the testing fee and complete your registration.

Option 3: Online Testing

1. Visit ATI Testing https://atitesting.com/ and log in to your account.
2. Select TEAS.
3. Select Register for TEAS.
4. Select Online Testing.
5. Follow the instructions to register for and complete your online exam.

Important: Sending Your Scores to ISU

If you take your exam online, you MUST have your scores sent to ISU after completing the exam.

When sending your scores, select one of the following school codes:
- ID State U Meridian
- ID State U BSN

Important Reminders

- You must have an ATI account regardless of where you take your exam.
- I recommend reviewing study materials and allowing yourself plenty of time to prepare before scheduling your exam.
- If testing online, you are responsible for sending your official TEAS scores to ISU after your exam.
    - This can take 3-5 business days-plan accordingly
- TEAS exams must be completed 5 days before the close of the application cycle
    - Test scores must be received by ISU before being granted access to the application
- You must complete your TEAS exam and scores received by ISU before being eligible to apply to the nursing program
    - Passing score is 60% or higher
